Bryan Family History, First Edition

This book is dedicated to my mother, Bernice (Brooks) Casey (1919 - 2002). Her many years of research added significantly to this publication and her name remains as one of the authors - even though she died in 2002. I miss the our frequent "genealogy sessions."

INTRODUCTION

This publication focuses on the descendants of the author's oldest proven Bryan ancestor, John Bryan (1) of Rowan County, North Carolina. It is believed by this author that there is a high probability that John is the son of Morgan Bryan and Martha (Strode) Bryan. However, definitive proof is still lacking and inclusion the children of Morgan Bryan is beyond the scope of this publication. This publication is heavily concentrated on nine grandchildren of John and Sarah Bryan and it is believed that over 90 percent of the descendants included are descendants of these nine grandchildren. Around one-third of this publication concentrates on the Samuel Bryan, Jr., son of Samuel Bryan, grandson of John Bryan. Another one-fourth of this publication concentrates on the descendants of two other grandsons of John Bryan that are sons of Samuel Bryan (2), William Park Bryan and James Thomas Bryan.

The author of this publication, "Bryan Family History," is an experienced genealogist and has previously published four family histories. Robert Casey and his father, Harold Casey, published "Casey Family History" in 1980. Robert and his mother, Bernice (Brooks) Casey, published "Brooks Family History" in 1982. Robert Casey and his father, Harold Casey, published "Shelton, Wininger and Pace Families" in 1988. Robert Casey and his mother, Bernice (Brooks) Casey, published "Olliff Family History" in 1992. Since their original publications, Robert and his parents have also greatly expanded these printed publications and have several publications that have not been published to date (text versions of these publications are available at the author's web site). Robert Casey and his wife, Diane (Thede) Casey, have also written a manuscript on Diane's Thede, Aubil, Garver, Steeby and Schmutz lines. To date, it is estimated that over 60,000 relatives are documented in nine books and electronic publications. It is estimated that over 7,500 descendants of John and Sarah Bryan and related lines (Revier and Morrow) have been documented to date.

It is highly recommended that anyone wishing to preserve their Bryan family history promptly write this author and contribute any information in their possession. I am specially interested in copies of older photographs, family history recorded in Family Bibles, existing family history sketches, genealogical correspondence which contain a significant quantity of information, letters and diaries written prior to 1900, older legal documents, census records, photographs of older ancestors (pre-1900 preferred) as well as recent additions to your families and studio quality family portraits.

Information has been obtained from many sources and references are listed with each family sketch to aid future research on the "Bryan Family History." Much of the history of our Bryan family is incomplete or may contain a few errors. Additional information and corrections are being sought and will be included in future editions of this publication. Please have patience for corrections and additions as this author is attempting to keep current nine large family history publications similar to "Bryan Family History." Much information received by this author on our family history has been copied and revised several times prior to its inclusion in our book. This author has learned from experience that copying and interpreting usually results in less accurate information. Additionally, primary sources of valuable information as well as critical information are lost in this process. If a large amount of information is derived from another person or existing written material, then please send the name and address of the source or xerox the existing material. This author can not under emphasize the need and usefulness of original source material.

There are many of our relatives who may be interested in adding to our family history but do not know that this publication is being compiled. Additional names and addresses of other interested family historians are very difficult to obtain without your active assistance. These names and addresses also directly affect the ability to preserve this family history through book publication. Without an extensive list of interested family historians, a high quality publication can not be printed without this author greatly subsidizing the cost of this publication. Current plans include a "print on demand" publication with a limited quantity being printed - I need your help with contacting other cousins who can contribute more information and would be interested in purchasing the family history when printed.

JOHN BRYAN (1) is the oldest proven ancestor of the authors. This author feels that his ancestor, John Bryan (1), is the most likely candidate to be the son of Morgan Bryan and Martha (Strode) Bryan. In his will dated March 28, 1763, Morgan Bryan mentions his son, John Bryan, therefore, there is no doubt that Morgan Bryan did have a son, John Bryan, who was living at the time that the will was written in 1763. The ancestor of the authors, John Bryan (1), is believed to have been born around 1731 which makes it reasonable that he could be the son of Morgan and Martha Bryan. Many sources indicate that Morgan Bryan's children were born from 1720 to 1740 which further supports this connection. John Bryan's birthdate was derived by knowledge that the earliest known marriage of his children - his daughter, Jane Bryan, married John Orton in 1770. Assuming that Jane Bryan married John Orton at age of eighteen, Jane Bryan was born around 1752. Assuming that John and Sarah Bryan were married when John Bryan was twenty years of age and that John and Sarah Bryan had Jane after one year of marriage, supports that John was born around 1731. This is the same birthdate established in the 1942 article written by Edward Bryan (the earliest reference that mentions the birthdate of John Bryan).

Also, there little doubt that most of Morgan Bryan's sons moved to Anson/Rowan County, North Carolina. In October of 1752, Morgan Bryan was issued numerous land patents from Lord Granville in behalf of his sons. The associated plats read: "land surveyed for John Bryant, William Bryant, Samuel Bryant and Joseph Bryant." These plats confirm that several sons of Morgan Bryan lived in Anson County, North Carolina as early as 1752.

There was definitely a John Bryan living in Rowan County as early as 1758 with many land transactions occurring in what is now the extreme south central part of what is today Yadkin County, North Carolina. From 1778 to 1797, John Bryan (1) is definitely known to have owned land and eventually resided in the west central of part of what is today Davie County, North Carolina. Proving that these were both the same John Bryan will be indeed be difficult as well as establishing that the John Bryan of southern Yadkin County is the son of Morgan Bryan, mentioned in his 1763 will.

There are numerous books and articles written on Morgan and Martha Bryan and their children. Most of these books and articles state little about Morgan's son, John Bryan. The most widely available books are: "The Boone Family" by Hazel Atterbury Spraker, 1922 and "Brianniana" by Edward A. Bryan, 1934. Both of these books state that the Morgan Bryan had a son named John but give no additional information concerning John Bryan and his family. Another widely referenced book is "Pioneer Families of Missouri" by William S. Bryan and Robert Rose which was first published in 1876. The original 1876 sketch on the Bryan family mentions no children of Morgan Bryan. However, in the 1935 reprint of the book, an introduction was added in which Morgan Bryan's children are listed. Although John Bryan is mentioned to be a son of Morgan Bryan, no additional information on John Bryan or his family is introduced. Other known books that the author has not had access to are: "The Boone-Bryan History" by Dr. J. D. Bryan, 1913 and "The Shearer-Akers Family" by James William Shearer, 1915. An article entitled "Bryan, a Pioneer Family" by Edward Bryan appeared "The Register of the Kentucky State Historical Society" in 1942. This article introduces an estimate of John Bryan's birthdate to be circa 1731 but gives no additional information on John Bryan or his family.

The book, "Carolina Cradle," by Robert W. Ramsey, 1964, provides a well documented sketch of Morgan Bryan, however, it does not include any information on Morgan's son, John Bryan or his family. Another widely available book "Notable Southern Families" by Zella Armstrong, 1974, introduces a major error on John Bryan and his family. It states that John Bryan married Frances Battle and that John was a Captain in the Revolution who was killed at his own door by Colonel Fanning. This John Bryan died many miles away from where Morgan Bryan and his children lived while John Bryan (1), believed to be Morgan's son, lived nearby. The will of John Bryan was signed in 1797 and probated in 1801. This will clearly establishes that the wife of John Bryan was named Sarah. Land associated with this will clearly establish that this was the will of the John Bryan who lived on or near Bear Creek and Dutchman's Creek (this is approximately eight miles southwest from where Morgan Bryan last lived). Also, several children of John Bryan (1) are known to resided in this same area. To date, this author has never seen any primary documentation that links John and Frances Bryan (or any of their known children) to the area around where Morgan Bryan last lived.

John Bryan (1) is known to be the father of Samuel Bryan, Sr. of Davidson County, Tennessee by a 1801 deed recorded in Rowan County, North Carolina. On October 15, 1801, "Samuel Bryan of Davidson County and State of Tennessee" received 200 pounds for 200 acres of land from "John Little of Rowan County and State of North Carolina." This deed describes this land as a "parcel of land left to him the said Samuel Bryan by the will of John Bryan, Dec'd lying & being in Rowan County and State of North Carolina lying on Bear Creek being part of a tract of land Granted to the said John Brian (sic) by the state of North Carolina bearing date at Kingston the twenty fifth day of October Anno Domini Seventeen hundred and Eighty six, No. 1225 as by record will more fully appear." This land was bounded by land owned by Benjamin Gaither and the deed was witnessed by another neighbor, Jacob Trout. The description of this land and the neighbors listed in this deed provide a firm connection between John Bryan of Rowan County, North Carolina of Samuel Bryan of Davidson County, Tennessee.

From 1778 until his death 1800 (probate started), John Bryan (1) owned land and probably lived around eight miles southwest of where Morgan Bryan, Sr.

last lived. John Bryan, Sr. lived in an area of Rowan County, North Carolina that, in 1836, became west central part of Davie County, North Carolina. Through numerous land transactions, it has been determined that John Bryan (1) lived in Rowan County, North Carolina from 1778 to 1800 and that he had the following neighbors (some deeds from the probate records): Benjamin Gaither (1778 - 1803), Thomas Pennery (1778 - 1796), William Williams (1778 - 1787), Robert Luckey (1778 - 1787), John Van Eaton (1778), Valentine Huff (1783 - 1802), John Adams (1784), Mary Luckey (1784 - 1796), Ralph Vaneleave (1784), John Hughey (1784), George Wilcoxon (1784), John Bryan, Jr. (1787 - 1797), Daniel Sutherland (1787), John Pinchback (1787), Richard Speaks (1787), William Patrick (1787), Jacob Nichols (1787), Samuel Reed (1787), Jacob Trout (1796 - 1801), John Little, Sr. (1801), Beal Ijams (1801) and Jacob Coon (1802). It is also known from these deeds that they all lived near the following creeks: Bear Creek (great majority of deeds), Hunting Creek and Dutchman's Creek.

It has been definitely established that John Bryan (1) resided on land near Bear Creek for a period of twenty years. It appears that John Bryan (1) moved to the Bear Creek area around 1778. The earliest known proof that John Bryan (1) owning land near Bear Creek in Rowan County, North Carolina is a vacant land entry where 400 acres was entered on Bear Creek adjacent to Robert Luckey, William Williams and John Van Eaton. This vacant land entry was dated February 16, 1778. In 1783, State Land Grant Number 635 that was issued to Benjamin Gaither for 508 acres "on Bear Creek in the creek bottom next to John Bryan and Valentine Huff." Gaither and Huff are listed several times as owning land next to John Bryan (1) over the next twenty years. In 1786, John Bryan (1) was issued State Land Grant Number 1225 in Rowan County, North Carolina for 200 acres next to land owned by Benjamin Gaithers and William Williams. In 1787, the son of John Bryan (1), Samuel Bryan, bought 100 acres of land from John Adams in Rowan County, North Carolina. This land was situated on Bear Creek and had the following neighbors: John Bryan, Mary Luckey, Thomas Penry and Benjamin Gaither. Because of neighbors listed in these deeds, it is almost certain that this Samuel Bryan was the son of John and Sarah Bryan. Nine years later, in 1796, Samuel Bryan sold this land to Jacob Trout and the indenture listed the same four neighbors listed in 1787.

There are several sources that show another John Bryan, probably John Bryan (1), living about one or two miles northeast of where Morgan Bryan and Martha Bryan last lived in 1762. This land is now situated in the north central part of Davie County, North Carolina. According to an abstract of a deed listed in the McCubbins collection, "Earl Granville let John Bryan of Rowan County, North Carolina have 646 acres of vacant land on both sides of Morgan's Creek on a branch of Cedar Creek, waters of Dutchman's Creek." This abstract further states that this deed was recorded in book 5, page 146. The "Davie County Land Grants" map by Andrew Lagle and the "Davie County, North Carolina Historical Documentation" map by the Custom House both indicate that this land was granted to John Bryan in 1762. Apparently, both maps were based on the the McCubbins abstract and the McCubbins abstract is definitely in error. The actual deed (Book 5, Page 146) shows that Morgan Bryan, Jr. acquired this land in 1762, not John Bryan. However, a John Bryan did live on this land in 1780. On March 4, 1780, Joseph "Bryant" was granted 288 acres and listed John “Bryant” as a neighbor. Additionally, on March 21, 1780, Morgan “Bryant” was granted 250 acres and listed John “Bryant” as his neighbor. Apparently a John Bryan acquired this land from Morgan Bryan between 1762 and 1780.

There is a John Bryan mentioned in the 1741 will of Mary (Bryan) Curtis probated in Orange County, Virginia. Mary is said to be the sister of John Bryan (1). Another John Bryan appears in at least two Anson County, North Carolina legal transactions. On January 9, 1748/49, John Bryan had become of age by when he was a Sworn Chain Carrier (SCC). On October 27, 1752, Morgan Bryant, Jr. obtained 141 acres of land in Anson County, North Carolina using the survey that John Bryant did in January, 1748/49. On October 27, 1752, Morgan Bryan, Sr. obtained a patent for 313 acres in Anson County on the north bank of the Yadkin River below Mill Creek Mulberry Fields. This land was acquired on behalf of his son, John Bryan, the land being surveyed on January 4, 1748/49. This land was sold ten years later by John Bryan and Morgan Bryan, Jr. to John Howard.

There are several other references to a John Bryan residing in Rowan County, North Carolina prior to 1778 which could be John Bryan (1). Most of this property is located in what is today the south central part of Yadkin County, North Carolina. Any connection to this John Bryan and John Bryan (1) has not been established. On April 22, 1762, Morgan Bryan, Jr. and John Bryan let John Howard have 313 acres “on the north bank of the Yadkin River below Mill Creek of Mulberry Fields.” This deed was witnessed by William Williams and John Linville. The description of this property listed no neighbors and it is not certain where this property was located. On October 10, 1763, John Bryan sold land “lying on both sides of Millar’s Branch being a fork of Deep Creek” to Morgan Bryan. On October 12, 1763, John Bryan sold 460 acres “lying on both sides of Miller’s Creek, a Fork of Deep Creek,” to Christian Miller. This property was on Martha Bryan’s corner. This property was part of 560 acres granted to John Bryan by Earl Granville on August 10, 1762. On February 13, 1771, John Bryan sold 101 acres to Morgan Bryan “being part of the tract of land whereon the said John Bryan now dwells which was formerly granted to him.” This deed was witnessed by John Braly, John Parr, Jr. and Andrew Hunt. In 1772, John Bryan (1) and his two sons, John and Samuel, were found in a list of taxables returned by William Sharp. This clearly establishes birthdates of John’s sons, John and Samuel, to be prior to 1756 (white male men were subject to be taxable when they reached the age of sixteen).

According to the 1797 will of John Bryan (1), John Bryan married a woman whose first name was Sarah. According to Ruth Cooper, John Bryan married Sarah Hobby. Originally this marriage was thought to be based on family legend but it is now believed that this connection was derived from a marriage record of Edgecombe County, North Carolina where a John Bryan married a Sarah Hobby on July 1, 1766. The authors now believe this marriage to be extremely speculative in nature. Even if this marriage was John Bryan (1) and Sarah Bryan, Sarah would probably not be the mother of any of John Bryan’s children as most of them (if not all) appear to be born prior 1766 (the date of marriage between John Bryan and Sarah Hobby of Edgecombe County, North Carolina). Additionally, it is believed that John Bryan (1) lived in south central part of Yadkin County, North Carolina in 1766. In 1766, the western most boundary of Edgecombe County, North (which was a much larger county then) consisted the western most boundary of present day Nash County, North Carolina. These two counties are substantially far apart which further discounts the validity of this connection.

The will indicates that John and Sarah Bryan were the parents of three sons and six daughters (the following birthdates of the below listed children are rough approximations derived primarily from marriage dates, land transactions, estate papers and one tombstone):

- . . . Samuel Bryan (2), b. mid 1750's
- . . . James Bryan (1.2), b. 1760's
- . . . John Bryan, Jr. (1.3), b. mid 1750's
- . . . Jane Bryan (1.4), b. early 1750's
- . . . Jannet Bryan (1.5), b. late 1750's
- . . . Elizabeth Bryan (1.6), b. late 1760's
- . . . Sarah Bryan (1.7)
- . . . Mary Bryan (1.8), b. early 1760's
- . . . Margaret Bryan (1.9), b. ca. 1768

The will of John Bryan, a planter, "made while in perfect health on November 18, 1797" is the last known date that John Bryan (1) was still living. On November 5, 1800, "the will of John Bryan is proved by Samuel Casey, Joseph Orten and William Law." The Loose Estate papers of James Bryan (son of John Bryan) state the John Bryan died in 1800 in Rowan County, North Carolina. These two records that John Bryan (1) probably died in 1800 in Rowan County, North Carolina. In 1801, his son, Samuel Bryan, was selling land that he enherited from from his father, John Bryan, deceased. On May 31, 1805, "William Law and Joseph Orton (as executors of deceased John Bryan wanted certain land sold) let John Little" have "300 acres on both sides of Bear Creek on the line of the original grant next to Benjamin Gaither and William Williams for 287 pounds." There have been no records of Sarah Bryan located after the death of John Bryan (1).

JAMES BRYAN (1.2) is the son of John Bryan, Sr. and Sarah Bryan. Since James Bryan died around 1798 and left sons that required guardianship as late as 1810. Jesse Bryan still required guardianship in 1808 indicating that he was born no earlier than 1790. John Bryan still required guardianship in 1810 indicating that he was born no earlier than 1792. Assuming that James Bryan was between twenty years of age and thirty years of age when Jesse Bryan was born, results with James' birthdate being between 1760 and 1770. James Bryan may have married Margaret Johnson on December 8, 1790 in Rowan County, North Carolina. John Johnston was the bondsman for this marriage (note that John "Johnston" later was a guardian for one of the sons of James Bryan which strengthens this connection). Another supporting document can be found in Williamson County, Tennessee. In the estate records of John Johnston / Johnson which was probated in April, 1816, "the heirs of James Bryan" are mentioned in the estate records. Although this marriage to Margaret Johnson is very plausible, it should still be considered speculative as there were several men named James Bryan living in Rowan County, North Carolina. According to the loose estate papers, James Bryan was the father of at least two sons:

- . . . Jesse Bryan, b. 1790 - 1798
- . . . John Bryan, b. 1792 - 1798

James Bryan (1.2) may have lived and died in Davidson County, Tennessee. There is will of James Bryan, dated 1797 in Davidson County, Tennessee. It states: "Being in weak and low state of health but of perfect mind and memory . . . do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament." This will later states: "I give to my well beloved wife Marget Bryan, the tract of land I live on.” It assigns Marget Bryan as executor (sic) of the estate. It should be noted that this author only has a partial copy of this will and may be missing critical information. In 1797, James Bryan is listed in his father’s (John Bryan) will in Rowan County, North Carolina. It lists “James (his heirs get 200 acres of the old improvement).” James Bryan died in 1798 or 1799 as indicated in the Loose Estate Papers of James Bryan in Rowan County, North Carolina. In 1805, Joseph Orton became the guardian of Jesse Bryan and John Bryan. In 1808, John Little, Jr. became the guardian of Jesse Bryan and John Bryan in Rowan County, North Carolina. In 1810, John Johnston was appointed the guardian of John Bryan.

JOHN BRYAN, JR. (1.3) is the son of John Bryan, Sr. and Sarah Bryan. Since John was believed to be married in 1774 and was probably around twenty at the time, it could be estimated that John Bryan, Jr. was born in the mid 1750’s. In 1772, John Bryan, Jr. is found in a tax list with his father, John Bryan. In order to listed at this time, John would have to be at least sixteen years of age, therefore, John was born prior to 1756. It is believed that John was born in the mid 1750’s. It is believed that John Bryan, Jr. married Rebecca “Orten” on August 26, 1774 in Rowan County, North Carolina. It is believed that Rebecca is the daughter of James Orton and Jane Orton as stated in the 1776 will of James Orton. This will lists “my loving daughter Rebecah” and is witnessed John Bryan, Elizabeth West and Samuel Young.

It is believed that Rebecca Orton is the daughter of James Orton (born 1725) and Jane (Bryan) Orton (born 1727). Rebecca Orton’s brother, James Orton (born 1750), was the grandfather of William Reed Orton who married Rebecca Huey (1.8.6). William Reed Orton was born in 1802 and is the son of James Orton (born 1773) and Elizabeth (Renshaw) Orton (born 1776). William is the grandson of James Orton (born 1750) and Elizabeth (Taylor) Orton (born 1754). Rebecca Orton’s brother, Joseph Orton, married Jannet Bryan (1.5). Rebecca Orton’s brother, John Orton, married Jane Bryan (1.4).

The 1797 will of John Bryan bequeathed twenty pounds to “my beloved grandson John Bryan, son to John Bryan, deceased.” This will indicates that John Bryan, Jr. died prior to 1797 and that John Bryan, Jr. was the father of at least one son:

. . . John Bryan, III, b. Prior to 1797

On August 7, 1781, “Letters of Administration: on the estate of John Bryan, decd. issue Rebecca Bryan and John Bryan, Senr: who gave David Caldwell and John Orton securities in £200 Specie and were qualified.” This implies that John Bryan, Jr. died prior to August 7, 1781 and left a widow, Rebecca. The fact that John Bryan, Sr. was issued letters of administration supports the connection of the deceased John Bryan to John Bryan (1). Additionally, the 1776 will of James Orton states that James Orton had a son named, John Orton. Therefore, it appears that Rebecca's brother, John Orton, posted bond.

There appears to be a major discrepancy in the above account. In 1787, there was a "John Bryan, Jr." living near John Bryan (1). If John Bryan, Jr. died in 1781, then it would appear that this would be John Bryan, III. However, if John Bryan, Jr. married Rebecca Orton in 1774, John Bryan, III would have been at most the age of thirteen, obviously too young to own land. In 1797, "John Bryan (the son of John Bryan)" was granted land. If this were John Bryan, III then why wasn't the fact that John Bryan was deceased mentioned. This grant further states that this land was "surplus of his father's old tract (the warrant was dated June 22, 1795)" which again supports the position that John Bryan, Jr. was still alive in 1795.

The 1787 State Land Grant Number 1532 was issued to Benjamin Gaither for "303 acres on Hunting Creek and Bear Creek next to Robert Luckey, John Bryan, Sr., William Williams, Daniel Sutherland, John Pinchback, Richard Speaks, William Patrick, John Bryan, Jr., Jacob Nichols and Samuel Reed." This implies that John Bryan, Jr. had a plantation and owned land near John Bryan (1) in 1787. On December 7, 1797, State Land Grant Number 2513 was issued to "John Bryan (the son of John Bryan)" for 115 acres "on the original line and Dutchmans Creek, it being surplus of his father's old tract (the warrant was dated June 22, 1795)."

JANE BRYAN (1.4) is the daughter of John Bryan, Sr. and Sarah Bryan. Since Jane married in 1770 and was probably a teenager at the time, Jane Bryan was born in the early 1750's. "Jane" Bryan married John Orton on May 26, 1770 in Rowan County, North Carolina. Jane's father, John Bryan, writes consent indicating that Jane had not reached the legal age. Robert Hughey and William Temple Coles signed the marriage bond. In the 1776 will of James Orton, there was a John Orton listed as the son of James and Jane Orton. John Bryan, Elizabeth West and Samuel Young witnessed the will.

It is believed that John Orton is the son of James Orton (born 1725) and Jane (Bryan) Orton (born 1727). John Orton's brother, James Orton (born 1750), was the grandfather of William Reed Orton who married Rebecca Huey (1.8.6). William Reed Orton was born in 1802 and is the son of James Orton (born 1773) and Elizabeth (Renshaw) Orton (born 1776). William is the grandson of James Orton (born 1750) and Elizabeth (Taylor) Orton (born 1754). John Orton's brother, Joseph Orton, married Jannet Bryan (1.5). John Orton's sister, Rebecca Orton, married John Bryan, Jr. (1.3).

On March 4, 1780, John Ortan was granted 300 acres on the south bank of the South Yadkin River. On February 7, 1786, John Brandon and John Orton signed as security for a bond of 300 pounds for orphan children of John Bryan: Sarah Bryan, Jean Brian and John Brian. In the 1797 will of John Bryan, Sr., "Jean Ortan" was listed as a daughter.

JANNET BRYAN (1.5) is the daughter of John Bryan, Sr. and Sarah Bryan. Because Jannet married in 1780, it very likely that Jannet Bryan was born in the late 1750's. On September 2, 1780, "Jannet Bryan (a single woman)" married Joseph Orton and Samuel Orton signed the marriage bond. In the 1776 will of James Orton, there was a Joseph Orton listed as the son of James Orton. John Bryan witnessed the will. It is believed that this James Orton is the father of Joseph Orton who married Jannet Bryan.

It is believed that Joseph Orton is the son of James Orton (born 1725) and Jane (Bryan) Orton (born 1727). Joseph Orton's brother, James Orton (born 1750), was the grandfather of William Reed Orton who married Rebecca Huey (1.8.6). William Reed Orton was born in 1802 and is the son of James Orton (born 1773) and Elizabeth (Renshaw) Orton (born 1776). William is the grandson of James Orton (born 1750) and Elizabeth (Taylor) Orton (born 1754). Joseph Orton's sister, Rebecca Orton, married John Bryan, Jr. (1.3). Joseph Orton's brother, John Orton, married Jane Bryan (1.4).

In 1797, "Jennet Ortan" was listed in her father's will and "son-in-law Joseph Ortan" was named executor. In 1800, Joseph Orton was listed in the census of Rowan County, North Carolina. On November 5, 1800, Letters of Administration were issued to "Joseph Orton and William Law." "The will of Joseph Orten was made while weak in body on January 26, 1807." This will states that his wife, Janet, should have "the house wherein I now dwell and land two hundred and 20 acres." This will shows that Joseph and Jannet Orten were the parents of the six children:

- . . . Joseph Orten, Jr.
- . . . Rachel Orten (1.5.2), b. ca. 1781
- . . . John Orten (1.5.3), b. ca. 1784, North Carolina
- . . . James Orten
- . . . Elizabeth Orten
- . . . Jincey Robertson Orten

On May 2, 1808, the administration on the estate of Jannet Orton is granted to James Orten and Joseph Campbell who qualified and gave bond of 200 pounds with Henry Hughey and Francis Neely. Joseph Campbell is appointed guardian of Jane, orphan of Joseph Orten and gave bond of 500 pounds with James Orten and Francis Neely. On April 19, 1809, Jincey Robertson Orten married John Wilson. The marriage bond was signed by James Orten.

RACHEL ORTON (1.5.2) is the daughter of Joseph Orton and Jannet (Bryan) Orton. Rachel was born around 1781. Around 1800, Rachel Orton married Joseph Campbell, Jr. Joseph was born around 1775 in Rowan County, North Carolina and is the son of Joseph Campbell and Rebecca Campbell. Joseph and Rachel Campbell were the parents of seven children:

- . . . Jane Campbell (1.5.2.1), b. ca. 1800, Rowan County, North Carolina

MARGARET BRYAN (1.9) is the daughter of John Bryan and Sarah Bryan. Margaret was 78 years of age when she died on November 29, 1846 and was therefore born around 1768. This date is substantiated by the fact that Margaret married in 1789, probably being approximately 21 years of age, would also result in a birthdate estimate of 1768. The 1840 census supports the birthdate of 1768 and indicates that Margaret was born between 1760 and 1770. On May 26, 1789, "Marjira Brion" married Thomas Allen and William Huey signed this Rowan County, North Carolina marriage bond. Thomas Allen was 66 years of age when he died on September 7, 1832 and was therefore born around 1766. The will of Erasmus Wethers Allen (signed October 26, 1787 and proven August 5, 1789) mentions several daughters and two sons, William Allen and Thomas Allen and mentions wife Sarah. On October 25, 1786, Thomas Allen was granted 43 acres of land on Bryan's Mill Creek next to James Forbush, John Johnston, James Chapman and James Wilson. On April 11, 1789, Erasmus and Sarah Allen sold 43 acres of land on Brian's Mill Creek next to James Forbis, John Johnston, James Chapman and James Wilson. It appears from these land transactions and will that Thomas Allen may be the son of Erasmus Allen and Sarah Allen.

In 1797, "Margaret" Allen was listed in her father's will and Thomas Allen was a witness for the will. In November of 1800, Thomas Allen lets Brumbly Coker have 162 acres on Elisha's Creek for 200 pounds. On December 27, 1806, John Bryan and wife Rebekah let Thomas Allen have 105 acres on Muddy Creek next to Edward Yarbory and Phillip Hanes for $300. In 1807, Thomas Allen let James Baxter have 105 acres on Muddy Creek next to Matthew Jones and Valentine Fry for 150 pounds. On April 8, 1811, John Fox let Joseph Dial have 270 acres on Elisha's Creek waters of Dutchman's Creek next to land owned by Joseph Allen, said Joseph Dial, Thomas Allen, John Cheshier, Brumble Coker and Nicholas W. Gaither.

There is also evidence of Thomas Allen living in Davidson County, Tennessee. In 1805, Thomas Allen and Zachariah Allen were enumerated in the 1805 tax list of Davidson County, Tennessee. Obviously, there must be two Thomas Allens as another Thomas Allen was found in Rowan County, North Carolina as late as 1811. In 1809, Samuel Bryan (2) purchased 50 acres of land from John Burnham in Davidson County, Tennessee. In the description of the land, Zachariah Allen, Thomas Allen and Newton Edney were listed as neighbors. In 1812, Thomas Allen and Zachariah Allen were listed in another tax list of Davidson County, Tennessee. In 1816, Thomas Allen and Zachariah Allen were listed in another tax list of Davidson County, Tennessee. In 1839, Samuel Bryan (3) sold the fifty acres that Samuel Bryan (2) purchased from John Burnham in 1809. This deed also lists Zachariah Allen, Thomas Allen and Newton Edney as neighbors. This was land inherited by Samuel Bryan (3) from his father, Samuel Bryan (2). It is not known if the Allens lived there at this time or if the description of the property was just being copied from the original deed. In 1820, Thomas Allen (born before 1775) was living in Madison County, Illinois (the parent county of Greene County, Illinois). In 1830, Thomas Allen (born 1760 to 1770) was living in Greene County, Illinois.

The 1873 newspaper, The White Hall Register, has a detailed biographical sketch of Thomas Allen and his brother, Zachariah Allen and states: the “progenitor of the Allen family, came from Tennessee to Madison County, stopping near Upper Alton, about as early as any other white settlers in that region. His wife was a Miss Bryant having been married in Tennessee. His house at Belltown was the first house built north of Apple Creek, in Greene County.” Author’s note: It appears that Thomas and Zachariah may have lived in Davidson County, Tennessee prior to migrating to Greene County, Illinois. However, Thomas Allen married Margaret Bryan in 1789 in Rowan County, North Carolina (not in Tennessee as stated in the newspaper article). The newspaper article continues: Thomas Allen “was a sociable, cheerful and a real philosopher. He was a Calvinist seceder from the Presbyterian Church. He died at Belltown about 1835.” Thomas and Margaret Allen were the parents of eight children:

- . . . Elizabeth Allen (1.9.1), b. February 14, 1790, Rowan County, North Carolina
- . . . John Allen (1.9.2), b. December 17, 1791, Rowan County, North Carolina
- . . . William David Allen (1.9.3), b. July 15, 1793, Rowan County, North Carolina
- . . . Thomas Allen, b. November 9, 1795, Virginia
- . . . Samuel Allen, b. February 9, 1798, Virginia
- . . . Unknown Child (implied from Bible record)
- . . . Sarah Allen (1.9.7), b. September 23, 1804, Tennessee
- . . . Josiah Allen (1.9.8), b. 1806, Tennessee

According to the History of Greene County, “Thomas Allen was a large, corpulent man, weighing over 250 pounds, and was good natured and jolly, and especially delighted in romping with children. He had a great love for young folks, common to all men of his build.” Thomas Allen died on September 7, 1832 in Belltown, Illinois and was buried in Belltown, Illinois. In 1840, Margaret (Bryan) Thomas was living with her son, Thomas Allen, in Greene County, Illinois. Margaret (Bryan) Allen died on November 29, 1846 in Belltown, Illinois and was buried in Belltown, Illinois. In 1820, Thomas Allen, Jr. (born 1775 to 1794) was living in Madison County, Illinois. In 1840, Thomas Allen, Jr. was living in Greene County, Illinois. Thomas’ mother, Margaret (Bryan) Allen was living with him. Thomas Allen never married and moved to Missouri. Thomas Allen died in 1853 in Lawrence County, Missouri. In 1820, Samuel Allen (born 1775 to 1794) was living in Madison County, Illinois. Samuel Allen never married and moved to Missouri. Samuel Allen died in 1857 in Lawrence County, Missouri. For many years, this author and several descendants of Nathan Allen (born 1799) believed that Nathan Allen was this missing child. However, recent discoveries by descendants of Nathan Allen have now greatly discounted this connection where it is now longer considered plausible.

SAMUEL BRYAN (2) is son of John Bryan (1) and Sarah Bryan. According to the 1830 census, Samuel Bryan (2) was born between 1750 and 1760. In 1772, Samuel Bryan is listed with his father, John Bryan (1) in a Rowan County, North Carolina tax list. During this time period, a white male would have been at least sixteen years of age to be taxable and usually left home by age twenty, therefore, Samuel Bryan would have been born between 1752 and 1756. Samuel Bryan married Margaret (Morrow) Steel in 1784 (a second marriage for Margaret resulting in a marriage date that would a little later than most marriages). Margaret (Morrow) Steel was estimated to be around twenty-four years of age when she married a second time to Samuel Bryan and therefore Margaret (Morrow) Steel was born around 1760. Samuel would have been around twenty-four to twenty-eight years of age (born 1756 to 1760) when he married Margaret. From these two sources, it is estimated that Samuel Bryan was born around 1756.

It is believed that John Bryan met his wife, through his Rowan County, North Carolina neighbor, John Morrow. This is probably the same John Morrow that signed the 1784 marriage bond of Samuel Bryan and Margaret Steel in Orange County, North Carolina. The 1807 will of William Morrow in Orange County, North Carolina lists Margaret "Bryen" as his daughter. Names of the children of Samuel and Margaret Bryan further validate this connection. Margaret is the daughter of William Morrow and Jane (Parks) Morrow. Samuel and Margaret Bryan named two sons using Margaret's family names: Henry "Morrow" Bryan and William "Park" Bryan. For additional information concerning this connection, see the section: Morrow Family History. For additional information on the descendants of William and Jane Morrow, see the sketch of William Morrow (51).

According to the will of Samuel Bryan (2), Samuel Bryan married a woman named Margaret. The 1830 census indicates that Samuel's wife (assumed to be Margaret) was born between 1750 and 1760. It is believed that Samuel Bryan married Margaret (Morrow) "Steel" on August 11, 1784 in Orange County, North Carolina. Assuming the census to be correct (census records of older individuals usually inflate the age somewhat) and that Margaret's second marriage was to Samuel Bryan at age twenty-four, Margaret was born around 1760. The western boundary of Orange County is around fifty miles from where Samuel Bryan was known have lived in Rowan County, North Carolina and this would be quite some distance for that time period, therefore, this could be a different Samuel Bryan who married Margaret Steel. However, the date of marriage (1784) is consistent with the birthdates of Samuel's children who were born primarily born in the 1790s. There is one exception where the tombstone of their daughter, Jane (Bryan) Pinkerton, states that Jane was born on October 22, 1780 (however, this birthdate is inconsistent with most of the known birthdates of the children of Samuel and Margaret Bryan). Further investigation of the Morrow and Steel families of Orange County, North Carolina might further strengthen the connection between Samuel Bryan (2) and his wife, Margaret. For information of the Morrow family, see the section "Morrow Family History."

In 1787, Samuel Bryan purchased 100 acres of land from John Adams in Rowan County, North Carolina. This land was situated on Bear Creek and had the following neighbors: John Bryan, Mary Luckey, Thomas Penry and Benjamin Gaither. This land was granted to John Adams in 1784 and located immediately southeast of where John Bryan was granted land in 1786 about two miles southeast of an earlier land grant to John Bryan. Without any doubt, this Samuel Bryan was the son of John and Sarah Bryan (because of the proximity to John Bryan's land and because of common adjoining neighbors). In 1796, Samuel Bryan sold this 100 acres of land to Jacob Trout. Samuel probably moved to Davidson County, Tennessee shortly after he sold his land in Rowan County, North Carolina and was definitely living in Davidson County, Tennessee by 1801 when he sold the land that he inherited from his father, John Bryan (1).

An 1801 Rowan County, North Carolina deed is the earliest known reference to Samuel Bryan living in Davidson County, Tennessee. This deed states that "Samuel Bryan of Davidson County, state of Tennessee" sold 200 acres of land on Bear Creek in Rowan County, North Carolina to John Little of Rowan County, North Carolina. Samuel received 200 pounds for this tract of land. This deed conveyed a "parcel of land left to him the said Samuel Bryan by the will of John Bryan, Dec'd, lying and being in Rowan County and state of North Carolina lying on Bear Creek being part of a tract of land granted to the said John Brian (sic) by the state of North Carolina bearing the date at Kingston the twenty fifth day of October Anno Domini seventeen hundred and eighty six, No. 1225 as by record will more fully appear." This land was bounded by Benjamin Gaither's line. This deed was witnessed by another neighbor, Jacob Trout.

In 1805, Samuel Bryant, Nathan Bryant, James Bryant, Samuel Briant and Asa Briant appear in the Davidson County, Tennessee Tax Lists. On September 9, 1808, Samuel Bryan (2) paid $500 to John Burnham for 50 acres of land in Davidson County, Tennessee. This land was situated on Traces Creek, waters of the Big Harpeth River and was bounded by land owned by Zachariah Allen, Newton Edney and Thomas Allen. In 1832, this land was enherited by his son, Samuel Bryan (3), who, in 1838, received $650 from Martin Forehand. In 1812, Samuel Bryan, William Bryan and Henry Bryan were listed under Captain Henry's Company in the Davidson County, Tennessee Tax List. It is certain that this is the same Samuel Bryan as Newton Edney, Thomas Allen and Zachariah Allen were shown owning land next to the parcel that Samuel bought in 1808. In the 1812 Tax List, their names were listed near Samuel Bryan. Samuel Bryan received four land grants in 1815 as shown in a 1824 deed where Samuel Bryan gave this land to his daughter Jane (Bryan) Pinkerton. All four grants are dated June 26, 1815 situated near Poplar Creek and Beech Creek, both of the South Harpeth River were: Number 7230 for 10 acres; Number 7248 for 30 acres; Number 7249 for 14.25 acres; 7251 for 27.25 acres.

On February 25, 1818, Samuel "Bryant" purchased eighty acres in Davidson County, Tennessee from William Campbell for $100.00. This land was situated “on the ridge between Big Harpeth and South Harpeth” and bounded by John Davis’ corner. On March 7, 1818, Samuel “Bryant” sold thirty acres of land in Davidson County, Tennessee to William Campbell for $35.00. This land was situated on the ridge between Beech Creek and Poplar Creek, waters of the South Harpeth River and was situated along “Robert Campbell’s now William Campbell’s west boundary line and three poles north of the road leading from Franklin to Newsoms Mill.” This land was originally granted to Samuel Bryan on June 26, 1815 in Land Grant Number 7248. On April 7, 1819, Samuel “Bryant” purchased one and one-half acres of land in Davidson County, Tennessee from John Davis for $7.50. This land was situated “on the south west side of Big Harpeth River” and bounded Dillahanty’s line and Richardson’s line.

On April 2, 1824, Samuel “Bryan” conveyed three tracts of land containing fifty-two acres in Davidson County, Tennessee “for and in consideration of the natural love and affection” to “his son-in-law the said David Pinkerton and his daughter Jane Pinkerton.” Twenty seven and three fourths acres of land was situated on Poplar Creek of South Harpeth and was granted to Samuel Bryan on June 26, 1815 in Land Grant Number 7251. The second tract of land was fourteen and one fourth acres that was granted to Samuel Bryan on June 26, 1813 in Land Grant Number 7249. The third tract of land was ten acres granted to Samuel Bryan in Land Grant Number 7230. Witnesses were Samuel Bryan, Jr. and Joseph Pinkerton. In 1830, Samuel Bryant, Senior (born 1750 to 1760) was living in Davidson County, Tennessee.

The children of Samuel and Margaret Bryan is story of family that grew slowly in size over the years (at least from this author’s point of view and many other Bryan researchers). According to the 1832 will of Samuel Bryan (2), Samuel and Margaret Bryan had at least seven children: - James Bryan, - Samuel Bryan, - John Bryan, - Elizabeth Bryan, - Maggie Ann Bryan, - Rebecca Bryan, - granddaughter, Sallie Webb (assumed to be child of another daughter). Also, Samuel Bryan’s will implies other sons as the will bequeaths property “to my three youngest sons,” however, the will only mentions three sons. Further research indicated that, in 1824, Samuel Bryan (2) conveyed land in Davidson County, Tennessee “for and in consideration of the natural love and affection” to “his son-in-law the said David Pinkerton and his daughter Jane Pinkerton” and another daughter was added to the family from this deed. This family was further expanded with the discovery of the 1909 letter written by a grandson of Samuel Bryan (2), Wash Bryan (born 1824). Wash Bryan indicated that his “grandfather had five sons: Henry, William, James, Samuel and John; and four daughters: Becky, Betsey, Sarah and Mary.” Wash continues by stating that “one daughter married Joe Pinkerton, another Sam Pinkerton, another married Webb, and another Joseph P. Wyles and lives in Missouri.” Since it was highly plausible that Wash Bryan would have an accurate knowledge of his uncles and aunts, the family grew in size again (posthumously of course).

With the 1909 letter believed to be valid, additional descendants of this expanded family were compiled. However, primary documentation was needed to confirm the 1909 letter of Wash Bryan and help expand the proven family of Samuel and Margaret Bryan. Then in January of 2002, the infamous "As Good As It Gets" email began to circulate where John Dorroh had discovered this primary documentation. John had had uncovered chancery court records where the court was attempting to settle the estate of Henry M. Bryan who had died intestate (without will). These estate records indicate that Henry M. Bryan had four surviving siblings: John M. Bryan, Elizabeth "Pinckerton," Margery Ann, wife of Samuel W. Thompson and Rebecca, wife of Joel P. Wiles. These estate records also indicated that Henry M. Bryan had another eight siblings that died before Henry Bryan: W. P. Bryan (nine children listed); James Bryan (ten children listed), Samuel Bryan (six children listed); Peggy Campbell (five children listed and one grandson of another daughter); Jane Pinckerton (eight children listed); Sarah Webb (two children listed); Nancy Pickard (one daughter listed); Polly "Orten" (eight children listed). These records substantiated that Samuel and Margaret Bryan had at least thirteen children and proved forty-nine grandchildren and one great grandson. It also gave the county of residence of twenty-seven grandchildren that were living in Tennessee, listed the husbands of two daughters, the husbands of sixteen granddaughters and included several other important genealogical facts.

Other primary documentation that supports the letter of Wash Bryan is the 1841 Inventory of the estate of Margaret Bryan. It lists a note to James Bryan which could be a note owed from a son to his mother, Margaret Bryan. Another major fact of this inventory is that William P. Bryan was administrator of Margaret's estate. A son would be common choice for administration of his mother's estate. Therefore, this inventory implies a relationship to one son mentioned in the will of Samuel Bryan and one son that was not mentioned in the will. Other estate papers Henry M. Bryan also suggested a relationship between Henry M. Bryan with Samuel and James Bryan. An inventory of Henry Bryan's estate includes: "a receipt of W. D. Williams, debt, sheriff of Maury County, for a note on Samuel and James Bryan for two hundred and fifteen dollars . . . of January 1844 with a credit (?) of thirty dollars on the 2nd July 184? and a credit (?) of thirty dollars on the 22 of Oct. 1848 and a credit (?) of forty one dollars & 60 cents on the 27th of December 1848." This note might have been an older brother lending two younger brothers money to purchase land when they moved to Maury County, Tennessee. As with the estate of Margaret Bryan, this note suggests a relationship between two sons mentioned in Samuel's will and another son that was not listed in his father's will.

According to the 1832 will of Samuel Bryan, the 1824 deed of affection, the 1909 statement by Wash Bryan and the 1851 estate records of Henry M. Bryan, Samuel and Margaret Bryan were the parents of at least thirteen children:

- . . . William Park Bryan (2.1), b. 1790 to 1794, North Carolina
- . . . Henry Morrow Bryan (2.2), b. prior to 1794, North Carolina
- . . . James Thomas Bryan (2.3), b. December 1, 1799, North Carolina
- . . . Samuel Bryan (3), b. 1800, North Carolina
- . . . John M. Bryan (2.5), b. 1805, Tennessee
- . . . Elizabeth Bryan, b. 1790, North Carolina
- . . . Marjory Ann Bryan (2.7), b. 1800, Tennessee
- . . . Rebecca Bryan (2.8), b. 1807, Tennessee
- . . . Jane "Jennie" Bryan (2.9), b. October 22, 1780?, North Carolina
- . . . Mary Bryan (2.10), b. 1790, North Carolina
- . . . Sarah Bryan
- . . . Nancy Bryan (2.12), b. December 28, 1802, North Carolina
- . . . Margaret "Peggy" Bryan (2.13), b. December 23, 1791, North Carolina

Please note that the order of the children and Samuel and Margaret Bryan do not match the birth order. The dates of birth are estimated in most cases, not known in other cases and believed to be in error for other cases (Jane's birthdate appears inconsistent with the birthdates of her siblings). The renumbering of these children, for now, remains a future project since the task of renumbering would be substantial and subject to future changes. Samuel Bryan, Sr. signed his will on January 13, 1832 and this will was recorded on April 12, 1832. This implies that Samuel Bryan, Sr. died in the early part of 1832. Samuel Bryan and James Bryan were listed as the administrators of Samuel Bryan's estate. In 1840, it appears that Margaret Bryan was living with her daughter, Rebecca (Bryan) Wiles, in Davidson County, Tennessee. Listed in the household of Joel P. Wiles is one female (born 1750 to 1760). This birthdate matches the birthdate of Rebecca's mother who was over 80 years of age when the census was taken. The inventory of the estate of Margaret Bryan indicates that Margaret Bryan died sometime prior to October 5, 1841 when the Letters of Administration were granted to William P. Bryan for "the estate of Margaret Bryan, deceased." This entry further states: "William P. Bryan in court have gave bond in the sum of fourteen hundred dollars with James Bryan his security, qualified according to law." According to the 1909 letter of Wash Bryan, Samuel and Margaret Bryan were "buried at the old home place close to Edney's meeting house, known as the Tank neighborhood."

It is known that Samuel Bryan (3) and his brother, James Bryan (2.3), both originated from Davidson County, Tennessee and later lived in Maury County, Tennessee. Samuel Bryan's (3) marriage was documented in Davidson County, Tennessee in 1824. On September 19, 1839, deeds were recorded of land being sold by both Samuel Bryan (3) and James Bryan (2.3) to Martin Forehand in Davidson County, Tennessee. On April 20, 1838, Samuel Bryan (3) sold fifty acres of land to Martin Forehand for $650.00. This land was situated in District Fourteen and was bounded by land owned by Zachariah Allen and Newton Edney. This was the same fifty acres that Samuel Bryan (2) purchased from John Burnham in 1808. The will of Samuel Bryan (2) states that he gave to his "son Samuel Bryan fifty acres of land that I bought from John Burnham." It is believed that Samuel Bryan (3) left for Maury County, Tennessee shortly after he sold this land to Martin Forehand. On July 14, 1838, James "Bryant" sold ninety-two acres of land to Martin Forehand for $350.00. This land was situated on waters of Trace Creek, South Harpeth bounded by land owned by Thomas Malloy, the corner of fifty acre tract of land grant to Samuel Bryan, Sr., twenty five acre tract of land granted to John Davis, James Greene's corner. This ninety-two acres was part of a tract of land "issued by the State of North Carolina to Thomas Malloy for six hundred and forty acres one issued by the State of Tennessee to Samuel Bryan, Sr. for fifty acres and one to John Davis for twenty five acres."

It is known that Samuel and Margaret Bryan had a daughter that married Joe Pinkerton (stated in the 1909 letter by Wash Bryan). It appears that her name was Elizabeth from a marriage license issued to Elizabeth Bryan and Joseph Pinkerton in Davidson County, Tennessee on June 5, 1821. This is probably the daughter listed as "Betsey" in the 1909 letter by Wash Bryan and the sister of Henry M. Bryan listed in 1851 as Elizabeth "Pinckerton." There are several legal transactions of men named Joseph Pinkerton in Davidson County, Tennessee from 1820 to 1849. Three of these Davidson County, Tennessee documents are deeds: 1) Joseph Pinkerton to Samuel M. Pinkerton, 228 acres, April 22, 1820; 2) Joseph Pinkerton to Samuel Pinkerton, 100 acres, July 8, 1844; 3) Joseph Pinkerton to Samuel Pinkerton, 160 acres, January 1, 1849. According a Pinkerton Family Bible, there is a Joseph Pinkerton that died on June 21, 1822. Also listed in this Family Bible is the David Pinkerton that married Jane Bryan - therefore, it is probable that Joseph and David were brothers. Assuming this to be true, then Joseph Pinkerton married Elizabeth Bryan and died only one year after their marriage. This would imply that Joseph and Elizabeth would have had at most one child, if any. However, both the 1830 and 1840 census records show a Joseph Pinkerton living in Davidson County, Tennessee. According to Barbara Thompson, the Joseph Pinkerton that died in 1822 was the uncle of David Pinkerton (who married Jane Bryan) - not the brother of the David Pinkerton who married Jane Bryan. In 1787, this Joseph Pinkerton married Sarah McCutchan who died around 1847.

According to a 1844 deed, Joseph Pinkerton conveyed 45 1/2 acres to Samuel Pinkerton for "natural love and affection which he hath toward his nephew, the said Samuel Pinkerton." This is probably Samuel Pinkerton (2.9.4) who is the son of David Pinkerton (who married Jane Bryan) This Samuel Pinkerton (2.9.4) married Mary Jones in 1845, just one year after receiving his free land from his uncle, Joseph Pinkerton. This deed proves that Joseph Pinkerton (who married Elizabeth Bryan) was indeed the brother of David Pinkerton (who married Jane Bryan). This deed also suggests that Joseph and Elizabeth Pinkerton probably did not have any children (giving his property to a nephew instead of his children, implies no children). Neither Joseph Pinkerton or Elizabeth Pinkerton have been found in the 1850 census. On October 27, 1850, Joseph Pinkerton and Elizabeth Pinkerton purchased items from the estate of Elizabeth's brother, Henry M. Bryan. Joseph purchased one "beaureau" for $4.10 and Elizabeth purchased one lot of coffee for ten cents and meal bag for an unknown amount. It is curious why a married couple would be making purchases separately - was there a separation or did a wife purchase a few small items while Joseph stepped away from the auction? In 1860, "Elizabeth Pinkerton" (born 1790 in North Carolina) was living in Davidson County, Tennessee with Jane "Bryant," the widow of Elizabeth's brother, John M. Bryan. In 1870, "Elizabeth Pinkerton" (born 1790 in North Carolina) was living in Davidson County, Tennessee next to Samuel Pinkerton (2.9.4) and Thomas J. Webb, possible relative of Sarah (Bryan) Webb.

The 1832 will indicates that Samuel and Margaret Bryan had a granddaughter, Sallie Webb. This implies that Samuel and Margaret Bryan had a daughter that married a Mr. Webb and that this daughter died prior to 1832. In 1909 letter by Wash Bryan indicates that a daughter of Samuel and Margaret Bryan "married a Mr. Webb." The 1851 estate papers of Henry M. Bryan, clearly state that "Sarah Webb" was the sister of Henry M. Bryan. It is also believed that Sarah Webb married John Webb because in the Inventory and Sale of the estate of Samuel Bryan, Sr., John Webb has several large loans which were listed as notes and accounts of no value. This implies that John Webb and/or his wife died prior to 1832. In 1830, there is a John Webb living in Williamson County, Tennessee. However, this census record implies that John had six daughters and five sons at that time, too many children to have been omitted from the will of Samuel Bryan and the estate records of Henry M. Bryan. The 1851 estate records of Henry M. Bryan state that Sarah Webb was the mother of two children - Sarah Webb (resident of Davidson County, Tennessee), - Andrew C. Webb (resident of Williamson County, Tennessee in 1851).

Thomas Jefferson Webb (b. 1848, d. 1880) could be related to this Bryan/Webb marriage. Thomas J. Webb was buried in the Pinkerton Family Cemetery where David D. Pinkerton was also buried. In 1850, Sarah Webb (born 1820, Tennessee) and Thomas Webb (born 1841, Tennessee), were living with John and Jane Bryan in Davidson County, Tennessee. In 1870, Thomas J. Webb (born 1842), his wife Martha Webb (born 1846) and their daughter, Sarah Webb (born 1868), were living in Davidson County, Tennessee next to Samuel Pinkerton (2.9.4) and Elizabeth (Bryan) Pinkerton (2.6).

According to the 1909 letter by Wash Bryan, Samuel and Margaret Bryan had a daughter that married Sam Pinkerton. Unfortunately, all the names of the daughters listed in his letter are accounted for and the 1851 estate papers only have two daughters of Samuel and Margaret Bryan that married Pinkertons: Elizabeth Bryan (married to Joseph Pinkerton) and Jane Bryan (married to David Pinkerton). This must be either an error in the 1909 letter by Wash Bryan or another missing daughter not included in the 1851 estate records of Henry M. Bryan. There was a Samuel Pinkerton living in Davidson County, Tennessee from 1820 to 1849 which is documented in three deeds: 1) Joseph Pinkerton to Samuel M. Pinkerton, 228 acres, April 22, 1820; 2) Joseph Pinkerton to Samuel Pinkerton, 100 acres, July 8, 1844; 3) Joseph Pinkerton to Samuel Pinkerton, 160 acres, January 1, 1849. On October 27, 1850, Samuel Pinkerton purchased several items from the estate of Henry M. Bryan. Samuel purchased the following items: one book case, one lot of calico, one watch and one gate shutter (?). Even the 1851 estate papers of Henry M. Bryan imply a relationship of Samuel Pinkerton to the Bryan family. These records indicate that Eliza J. "Orten" was a minor in 1851 and that Samuel "Pinckerton" was listed as her guardian. Samuel Pinkerton does not appear to a brother of David Pinkerton (who married Jane Bryan) and Joseph Pinkerton (who married Elizabeth Bryan). Both David and Joseph Pinkerton are listed as possible sons of David and Betsy Pinkerton in this Family Bible and there is no mention of any Samuel Pinkerton.

WILLIAM PARK BRYAN (2.1) is the son of Samuel Bryan and Margaret (Morrow) Bryan. William was born between 1790 and 1794 in North Carolina. In 1812, Samuel Bryan, William Bryan and Henry Bryan were listed under Captain Henry's Company in the Davidson County, Tennessee Tax List. It is certain that this is Samuel Bryan (2) as Newton Edney, Thomas Allen and Zachariah Allen were shown owning land next to the parcel that Samuel Bryan (2) purchased in 1808. Assuming that William would have to be eighteen to be listed in this tax list, William Bryan was born prior to 1794. The 1820 census indicates that William was born between 1775 and 1804. The 1840 census indicates that William Bryan was born between 1800 and 1810 (which is probably in error and should indicate between 1790 and 1800 instead). From these three sources, it is estimated that William was born between 1790 and 1794. On October 8, 1818, William Bryan married Olivia Eliose Bateman in Williamson County, Tennessee. Olivia was born around 1800 in Williamson County, Tennessee and is the daughter of William Bateman and Elizabeth (Smith) Bateman. In 1820, William and Olivia Bryan were living in Williamson County, Tennessee. William and Olivia Bryan were the parents of five children:

- . . . Julia Ann Bryan (2.1.1), b. September 26, 1819, Williamson County, Tennessee
- . . . William Shelby Bryan (2.1.2), b. October 20, 1821, Williamson County, Tenn.
- . . . Washington Carroll Bryan (2.1.3), b. January 15, 1824, Williamson Co., Tenn.
- . . . America Nancy Bryan (2.1.4), b. April 30, 1827, Williamson County, Tennessee
- . . . Olivia Lois Elizabeth Bryan (2.1.5), b. July 16, 1829, Williamson Co., Tennessee

Olivia (Bateman) Bryan died on July 17, 1829 in Williamson County, Tennessee. On January 4, 1830, William Bryan married a second time to Elizabeth Ann Oliver in Williamson County, Tennessee. William and Elizabeth Bryan were the parents of six children:

- . . . Harbert Alexander Bryan (2.1.6), b. March 31, 1833, Tennessee
- . . . Finas Ewing Bryan, b. May 4, 1834, Tennessee

- . . . Margaret Jane Bryan, b. November 12, 1835, Tennessee
- . . . Martha Frances Bryan, b. April 2, 1837, Tennessee
- . . . Mary Jane Bryan (2.1.10), b. April 24, 1839, Tennessee
- . . . Robert Clay Bryan, b. August 20, 1842

In 1835, William P. Bryan sold 70 acres of land in Davidson County, Tennessee to Philip Cloud (?). In 1838, William P. Bryan sold 50 acres of land in Davidson County, Tennessee to his brother, Henry M. Bryan, for $500. In 1840, William and Elizabeth Bryan were living in Davidson County, Tennessee. William Park Bryan died on July 16, 1844 in Batesville, Arkansas. Martha F. Bryan died as a child on April 27, 1844.

JULIA ANN BRYAN (2.1.1) is the daughter of William Park Bryan and Olivia Eliose (Bateman) Bryan. Julia was born on September 26, 1819 in Williamson County, Tennessee. On November 2, 1842, Julia Bryan married George W. Woodruff in Williamson County, Tennessee. George was born in 1822 in Tennessee. George and Julia Woodruff were the parents of at least three children:

- . . . William W. Woodruff, b. 1845, Mississippi
- . . . Joseph H. Woodruff, b. 1854, Mississippi
- . . . Sally A. Woodruff, b. 1856, Louisiana

In 1850, George and Julia Woodruff were living in West Baton Rouge Parish, Louisiana. In 1860, George and Julia Woodruff were living in Pointe Coupee Parish, Louisiana.

WILLIAM SHELBY BRYAN (2.1.2) is the son of William Park Bryan and Olivia Eliose (Bateman) Bryan. William was born on October 20, 1821 in Williamson County, Tennessee. On September 28, 1842, William Bryan married his first cousin, Margaret Ann Campbell (2.13.4), in Davidson County, Tennessee. Margaret was born on December 12, 1820 in Tennessee and is the daughter of William Campbell and Margaret (Bryan) Campbell. William and Margaret Bryan were the parents of seven children:

- . . . Jonathan Tate Bryan (2.1.2.1), b. July 1, 1843, Davidson County, Tennessee

HENRY MORROW BRYAN (2.2) is the son of Samuel Bryan and Margaret (Morrow) Bryan. In 1812, Samuel Bryan, William Bryan and Henry Bryan were listed under Captain Henry's Company in the Davidson County, Tennessee Tax List. It is certain that this is Samuel Bryan (2) as Newton Edney, Thomas Allen and Zachariah Allen were shown owning land next to the parcel that Samuel Bryan (2) purchased in 1808. Assuming that Henry would have to be eighteen to be listed in this tax list, Henry Bryan was born prior to 1794 in North Carolina. On January 3, 1835, Henry M. Bryan was mentioned as owning land adjacent to land being sold by his brother, William P. Bryan. This deed states that William P. Bryan sold 70 acres of land to Philip Cloud (?) of Williamson County, Tennessee "touching (the) west corner of Henry M. Bryan." On December 5, 1838, Henry M. Bryan purchased 50 acres of land from his brother, William P. Bryan, in Davidson County, Tennessee for $500. On January 15, 1839, Henry "Morrow" Bryan sold 50 acres of land to Joseph F. Hill in Davidson County, Tennessee for $700. Henry M. Bryan died shortly prior to October 27, 1850 when sale of property from his state was recorded in Davidson County, Tennessee. Among those purchasing from Henry's estate include: John M. Bryan, Samuel Pinkerton, Joseph Pinkerton and Elizabeth Pinkerton.

JAMES THOMAS BRYAN (2.3) is son of Samuel Bryan, Sr. (2) and Margaret (Morrow) Bryan. A 1947 letter from Cornelia (Moore) Redfield states that "Samuel Bryan and his brother, James Bryan came to Tennessee from North Carolina." This is substantiated by "Humphreys County, Tennessee" which states that the "Bryans came to Tennessee from North Carolina." It further states that "James Bryan was born December 1, 1799 in North Carolina" and that "James married Sarah Richards or Richardsons." A 1950 letter from Claude Stephenson states that his "mother has been told by her people that her grandfather, James Bryan, had a brother by the name of Samuel Bryan." It further states "the following information comes from Mother's Family Bible: James Bryan, departed this life, August 10, 1846, aged 46 years, 8 months and 10 days. Sally Bryan, departed this life, July 10, 1861, aged 61 years, 7 months and 10 days." This means that both James and Sally were born on the same day, December 1, 1799. According to a family group sheet by Martha (Mobley) McGill, James "Thomas" Bryan was born on December 1, 1799 in North Carolina. James and Sarah Bryan were the parents of at least nine children:

JANE "JENNIE" BRYAN (2.9) is the daughter of Samuel Bryan and Margaret (Morrow) Bryan. Jennie was born on October 22, 1780 in North Carolina. This birthdate may later than stated as Jennie would have been thirty at the time of her marriage, none of her siblings are known to have been born in the 1780s. It is known that Samuel Bryan had a daughter, Jane Bryan, who married David Pinkerton (this is proven in the 1824 deed where Samuel Bryan gave "his son-in-law the said David Pinkerton and his daughter Jane Pinkerton" fifty-two acres of land). A marriage license was issued on October 22, 1810 in Davidson County, Tennessee between David Pinkerton and "Jenny" Bryan. This appears to be a good match for the marriage of Samuel's daughter, Jane, to David Pinkerton. David was born on February 20, 1787 and is the son of David Pinkerton and Betsy Pinkerton. In 1830, there is a David Pinkerton (born 1790 to 1800) living in Davidson County, Tennessee. However, there were known to be two David Pinkertons of approximately the same age (the David unrelated the Bryan line married Celia Barnes) living in Davidson County, Tennessee and therefore it is impossible to determine which Pinkerton appeared in this census record. In 1840, there was a David Pinkerton (born 1780 to 1790) listed in the 1840 census of Davidson County, Tennessee. This David Pinkerton appears to be too old to the man who married Jane Bryan but the ages that appear census records are known to become less reliable as the head of family becomes older. David Pinkerton died prior to December, 1842 when property was sold from his estate as indicated in his settlement was recorded in Davidson County, Tennessee recorded on May 15, 1845. Cash was paid to Samuel Pinkerton and another David Pinkerton. "Ginny" Pinkerton received "her share of rent 1843 for $13.33 (the rent for 1843 was listed as $40.00 of income into the estate). The record further states that "the above settlement was made by and with Jane Pinkerton Admrx (?) October 26, 1844." It appears that David and Jane Pinkerton were married for over twenty years and that they had children as Jane only received one-third of the rent for 1843. According to deed, court minutes and Bible records, David and Jennie Pinkerton were the parents of eight children:

- . . . Anna Pinkerton (2.9.1), b. 1815, Tennessee
- . . . Eliza Pinkerton
- . . . James Pinkerton (2.9.3), b. 1820, Tennessee
- . . . Samuel Pinkerton (2.9.4), b. June 17, 1818, Tennessee
- . . . David C. Pinkerton (2.9.5), b. 1822, Tennessee
- . . . Margaret Pinkerton (2.9.6), b. June 7, 1813, Tennessee
- . . . Joseph Pinkerton (2.9.7), b. 1827, Tennessee
- . . . Mary Jane Pinkerton (2.9.8), b. 1826, Tennessee

According to Bible records, David Pinkerton died on June 23, 1842 in Davidson County, Tennessee. This is definitely the David Pinkerton that married Jane Bryan because it is known that Jane Bryan's husband (David Pinkerton) died shortly prior to December, 1842 according to probate records. Eliza Pinkerton married Joseph Spence and they had at least one son: - James Spence. There was definitely another David Pinkerton (born 1789 in Virginia) who married Celia Barnes, (born 1791 in Tennessee). This David Pinkerton was not only the same age as the David Pinkerton (that married Jane Bryan) but also lived in Davidson County, Tennessee during the same period of time. According to Barbara Thompson, David Pinkerton (who married Celia Barnes) was a nephew of David Pinkerton who married Jane Bryan. David Pinkerton (who married Celia Barnes) is the son of James Pinkerton and Mary (Foster) Pinkerton. Barbara Thompson states that James Pinkerton (who married Mary Foster) was the son of David Pinkerton (who married Betsy). To further confuse the two men, David Pinkerton (who married Celia Barnes) later lived in Greene County, Illinois where many other Bryan relatives resided. In 1835, David Pinkerton and wife, Celia, of Greene County, Illinois, sold land in Davidson County, Tennessee to Bartley M. Barnes, of Davidson County, Tennessee. This deed was acknowledged by John Allen, Justice of the Peace in Greene County, Illinois, who is a first cousin of Jane (Bryan) Pinkerton. It is also known that David Pinkerton (who married Celia Barnes) had a sister, Mary Pinkerton, that married Jane Bryan's first cousin, William David Allen, son of Thomas Allen and Margaret (Bryan) Allen. On April 6, 1811, David Pinkerton married in Davidson County, Tennessee to Celia Barnes, daughter of Henry Barnes. They had twelve children that lived to adulthood and many grandchildren (well documented in a published book). David Pinkerton (who married Celia Barnes) died on October 4, 1853 and Celia (Barnes) Pinkerton died on April 6, 1863. Both died in Greene County, Illinois and were buried there in the Pinkerton Cemetery.

Orton, in Davidson County, Tennessee. Samuel is the son of Joseph Orton and Mary (Bryan) Orton. For additional information on the descendants of Samuel Orton and Anna (Pinkerton) Orton, see the sketch of Samuel R. Orton (2.10.1). Samuel Pinkerton died around 1837. On September 5, 1844, Anna "Orton" married Cager Stark in Greene County, Illinois. Cager was born in 1810 in Tennessee. Cager and Anna Stark were the parents of at least two children:

. . . Elizabeth A. Stark, b. 1845, Illinois
 . . . Hannah C. Stark, b. 1847, Illinois

In 1850, Cager and Anna Stark were living in Greene County, Illinois. On September 2, 1854, Cager Stark was shown to have died intestate in Greene County, Illinois.

- . . . Elizabeth J. Pinkerton, b. 1844, Tennessee
- . . . William D. Pinkerton, b. 1845, Tennessee
- . . . John C. Pinkerton, b. 1847, Tennessee

- . . . Harriett Pinkerton, b. 1858

SAMUEL PINKERTON (2.9.4) is the son of David Pinkerton and Jane (Bryan) Pinkerton. Samuel was born on June 17, 1818 in Tennessee. On January 9, 1845, Samuel Pinkerton married Mary E. Jones. Mary was born on September 26, 1824. Samuel and Mary Pinkerton were the parents of three children:

- . . . Martha Ann Pinkerton, b. January 7, 1846, Tennessee
- . . . Margaret Harriet Pinkerton, b. May 31, 1848, Tennessee
- . . . David Dempsey Pinkerton (2.9.4.3), b. January 19, 1851, Davidson Co., Tenn.

In 1850, Samuel and Mary Pinkerton were living in Davidson County, Tennessee. Mary (Jones) Pinkerton died on September 7, 1851. On December 11, 1851, Samuel Pinkerton married a second time to Sarah Martin Webb. Sarah was born on August 2, 1817. Sarah was probably a first cousin of Samuel Pinkerton. "Sallie Webb" was mentioned in the will of Samuel Bryan, Sr. as being a granddaughter of Samuel Bryan, Sr. In 1850, "Sarah Webb," born 1820 in Tennessee, was living with her uncle and aunt, John Bryan and Jane Bryan, in Davidson County, Tennessee. Samuel and Sarah Pinkerton were the parents of four children:

- . . . Infant Daughter, b. October 5, 1853
- . . . Infant Son, b. and d. July 12, 1854
- . . . John Bryan Pinkerton, b. 1855, Davidson County, Tennessee
- . . . George Washington Pinkerton, b. December 17, 1859, Davidson Co., Tennessee

From 1860 to 1870, Samuel and Sarah Pinkerton were living in Davidson County, Tennessee. In 1860, Thomas Webb (born 1843), was living with Samuel and Sarah Pinkerton. Sarah (Webb) Pinkerton died on March 20, 1871 and Samuel Pinkerton died on May 23, 1886. Samuel and Sarah Pinkerton's daughter that was born on October 5, 1853 died only three days after she was born on October 8, 1853.

DAVID C. PINKERTON (2.9.5) is the son of David Pinkerton and Jane (Bryan) Pinkerton. David was born in 1822 in Tennessee. On December 18, 1845, David C. Pinkerton married Martha Stover in Davidson County, Tennessee. Martha was born in 1827 in Tennessee and is the daughter of John Stover and Catherine (Garland) Stover. David and Martha Pinkerton were the parents of at least one son:

. . . Orvil Henderson Pinkerton (2.9.5.1), b. December 12, 1848, Tennessee

In 1850, David and Martha Pinkerton were living in Davidson County, Tennessee. On March 19, 1854, David C. Pinkerton wrote a letter to his brother, Samuel Pinkerton (in possession of Mrs. Cliff Linton) which states that David C. Pinkerton was living in Cypress Mill, Perry County, Arkansas. On March 1, 1860, David C. Pinkerton patented 76.13 acres of land (S30, T5N, R16W) in Perry County, Arkansas. Family tradition indicates that David C. Pinkerton died and that his widow, Martha (Stover) Pinkerton, married David's brother, Joseph Pinkerton (2.9.7). The 1860 census does indeed show that Joseph was married to a woman named Martha and that Orvil Pinkerton (born 1848) was living with them which tends to support Martha's second marriage to Joseph Pinkerton. Also, the death certificate of Martha Jane Pinkerton (born 1865) indicates that her parents were Joe Pinkerton and Martha S.... (where the remainder of the last name is not legible). Because of the 1854 letter and 1860 land patent of David C. Pinkerton, it is possible that David C. Pinkerton died shortly after the patent in March, 1860. By the time of the 1860 census, Martha had married a second time to Joseph Pinkerton (a very short time which raises doubt to when David C. Pinkerton died). David C. Pinkerton may also fathered two additional sons, John Pinkerton (born 1854) and James Washington Pinkerton (born 1856). For additional information on these two possible sons, see the sketch of Joseph Pinkerton (2.9.7).

MARY JANE PINKERTON (2.9.8) is the daughter of David Pinkerton and Jane (Bryan) Pinkerton. Mary was born in 1826 in Tennessee. On January 30, 1845, Mary Jane Pinkerton married Christopher B. Brooks in Davidson County, Tennessee. Christopher was born in 1815 in North Carolina. Christopher and Mary Brooks were the parents of at least three children:

- . . . Richard A. Brooks, b. 1846, Tennessee
- . . . Thomas W. Brooks, b. 1847, Tennessee
- . . . Robert M. Brooks, b. 1849, Tennessee

MARY BRYAN (2.10) is the daughter of Samuel Bryan and Margaret (Morrow) Bryan. Mary Bryan (and several other known children of Samuel Bryan) were not listed in the will of Mary's father, Samuel Bryan. The 1909 letter by Wash Bryan (born 1824) states that his "grandfather (Samuel Bryan) had five sons: Henry, William, James, Samuel and John; and four daughters: Becky, Betsey, Sarah and Mary." He continues by stating that "one daughter married Joe Pinkerton, another Sam Pinkerton, another married Webb, and another Joseph P. Wyles and lives in Missouri." Unfortunately, four daughters were listed separately and four son-in-laws are mentioned (and no mention of any Orton marriage). However, the estate settlement of Mary's brother, Henry Bryan, proves beyond any doubt that Mary is the son of Samuel Bryan and Margaret Bryan. According to the 1830 census, Mary was born between 1775 and 1794. Since Mary married in 1810, it is estimated that Mary was born around 1790 in North Carolina. On November 6, 1810, "Polly" Bryan married Joseph Orton in Davidson County, Tennessee. According to the 1820 census of Williamson County, Tennessee, Joseph was born between 1775 and 1794 and that Joseph had seven children in 1820. According to Myrna Madigan, Joseph Orton was born on January 15, 1779 in Rowan County, North Carolina (if this birthdate is accurate then Mary Bryan may have been earlier than 1790). Joseph could be the son of Joseph Orton and Jannet (Bryan) Orton (1.5) but proof is not conclusive. Joseph Orton, Samuel Orton (possible brother of Joseph Orton) and David Pinkerton (possible brother-in-law of Joseph Orton) enlisted into the Second West Tennessee Militia from Williamson County, Tennessee. They served in the War of 1812 and participated in the Battle of New Orleans. Joseph Orton's service is documented in a Bounty Land Warrant Number 3829 in Illinois. It states that Joseph served in Lieutenant Gunter's Company, Colonel Carroll's Regiment, Tennessee Militia. The estate records of Henry Bryan (ca. 1851) indicate that Joseph and Mary Orton had the following eight heirs:

- . . . Jane Orton (who married Harrison Stark)
- . . . Nancy Orton (who married Thomas Branning)
- . . . Mary Orton (who married Thomas Lakin)
- . . . Sarah Orton (who married Willis Branning)
- . . . Rebecca Orton
- . . . James M. Orton
- . . . Henry Orton
- . . . Eliza J. Orton (Samuel Pinckterton listed as guardian of minor)

According to the last distribution of funds (1866) from the estate of Joseph Orton, Joseph Orton had the following ten heirs:

- . . . Jane P. Stark (heir)
- . . . Joseph Altum (heir)
- . . . Same (guardian)
- . . . Rebecca Jackson (heir)
- . . . Henry Orton (heir)
- . . . Eliza J. Ridge (heir)
- . . . Nancy Brannan (heir)
- . . . W. H. Orton (heir)
- . . . W. D. Branan (guardian)
- . . . J. M. Orton (heir)

The exact relationship of Eliza J. Orton to Joseph Orton presents challenging issues. At first glance, it would be very easy to conclude that Eliza (Orton) Ridge was the youngest daughter of Joseph and Mary Orton (there is a still a remote chance of this being true). If Eliza J. Orton was the daughter of Joseph Orton, why would Samuel Pinkerton (believed to be the uncle of Eliza J. Orton) become the guardian of Eliza J. Orton around 1851 when Joseph Orton was still living? Other sources imply that Eliza (Orton) Ridge was the only daughter of Samuel R. Orton, a son of Joseph Orton who died shortly after the birth of his only child (if there were other siblings, their father's share would have been divided among them). There is a Samuel R. Orton who married Anna Pinkerton on December 22, 1835 in Davidson County, Tennessee. According to John Dorroh, Samuel R. Orton died in Davidson County, Tennessee in 1837. There is also a Anna Orton who married Cager Stark on September 5, 1844 in Greene County, Illinois. The 1850 census of Greene County, Illinois (according to John Dorroh) shows Eliza Orton living with Cager and Anna Stark which greatly strengthens this connection. However, just one year later (possibly two or three years later as the exact date of the chancery court records of Henry M. Bryan are not certain), why does Eliza Orton require a guardian when her mother, Anna (Pinkerton) Orton / Stark, is still living? At first glance, the obvious answer is that Anna (Pinkerton) Orton / Stark must have died between 1850 (census record) and 1853 (the latest estimated date of the chancery court records of Henry M. Bryan). Guardianship is not only taking care for the day to day needs of children of minor age but is also used to allow other adults to be legal representatives of minor children where parents are unable to provide that role. Eliza and her mother, Anna, remained in Greene County, Illinois and Samuel Pinkerton remained in Davidson County, Tennessee during these court proceedings. Anna (Pinkerton) Orton / Stark had no financial interest in Henry M. Bryan - but her daughter, Eliza did have a claim via her father's (Samuel R. Orton) share. This is probably a case of Samuel Pinkerton assisting his sister obtain funds for Anna's daughter, Eliza. The brother of Anna Pinkerton, Samuel Pinkerton, probably even more interest in the estate of Henry M. Bryan than his relationship with his sister, Anna. The 1847 deed, where Henry M. Bryan purchased 114 acres of land and was later listed in his estate, lists Samuel Pinkerton as a neighbor. The deed states "thence west with Samuel Pinkerton line fifty-two poles to a sugar tree."

The second challenge was to identify the Joseph Altum that was listed as both a heir (probably representing the children of his deceased wife, Margaret) and as a guardian in the estate of Joseph Orton (1866). However, why are these heirs missing from the estate of Henry M. Bryan (1851)? Margaret Orton married George M. Pickard on August 1, 1833 in Williamson County, Tennessee. On November 28, 1838, Joseph Orton was appointed guardian of the minor heirs of the estate of George M. Picard - this implies that Margaret was a daughter of Joseph Orton. Margaret Pickard married Joseph "Aultom" on September 6, 1838 in Greene County, Illinois (believed to be Margaret (Orton) Pickard, widow of George M. Pickard). Joseph Altum is the only man listed that does not have the surname of Orton in the 1866 estate settlement of Joseph Orton. Joseph is listed as both a heir (probably representing the children of his deceased wife, Margaret) and as a guardian for heirs. This implies that Margaret (Orton) Pickard / Altum died prior to 1866. Therefore, Joseph Altum would qualify for one share as a guardian for the children of Margaret (Orton) Pickard and would qualify for one share as the guardian of the children by Joseph Altum and Margaret (Orton) Pickard / Altum. Margaret heirs should have been entitled only to one share that would be equally divided among all of her children (no matter how many marriages). Joseph may have received two shares because of two young families that he took responsibility for and no one was aware of what the heirs of Margaret (Orton) Pickard / Altum should receive. Another possibility is that Joseph Altum was the guardian for other minor children of sibling of Margaret (Orton) Pickard / Altum. According to Sharon Eckstein, a descendant of Mary (Orton) Lakin, Joseph Altum was the guardian for the minors of Mary (Orton) Lakin as well (there are no court records located to date indicating this).

The third minor challenge was to identify what happened to Mary (Orton) Lakin between 1851 and 1866. The obvious scenario is that Mary (Orton) Lakin died prior to 1866 and that Thomas and Mary Lakin had no children. Again, the obvious conclusion is not correct as Thomas and Mary Lakin had at least three daughters that were still living in 1866 (they were omitted from the estate of Joseph Orton for some reason). A fourth minor issue is that William Orton was for some reason not included in the estate of Henry M. Bryan when he would obviously qualified for a share. From the above research, Joseph and Mary Orton were the parents of at least ten children:

- . . . Samuel R. Orton (2.10.1), b. 1811, Tennessee
- . . . Margaret M. Orton (2.10.2), b. 1813, Tennessee
- . . . William H. Orton (2.10.3), b. 1815, Tennessee
- . . . James M. Orton (2.10.4), b. 1817, Tennessee
- . . . Jane P. Orton (2.10.5), b. November 4, 1818, Tennessee
- . . . Henry Orton (2.10.6), b. February 22, 1820, Tennessee
- . . . Nancy Caroline Orton (2.10.7), b. January 10, 1821, Williamson Co., Tennessee
- . . . Mary Ann Orton (2.10.8), b. 1824, Williamson County, Tennessee
- . . . Sarah Elizabeth Orton (2.10.9), b. 1828, Williamson County, Tennessee
- . . . Rebecca E. Orton, b. 1830, Williamson County, Tennessee

In 1820, Joseph Orton was living in Williamson County, Tennessee. From 1840 to 1860, Joseph Orton was living in Greene County, Illinois. According to Myrna Madigan, Joseph Orton died on May 28, 1864 in Greene County, Illinois. On June 10, 1858, Rebecca Orton married Robert Jackson in Greene County, Illinois.

additional information on the descendants of George and Nancy Pickard, see the sketch of Nancy Bryan (2.12). George was born on September 22, 1807 in Orange County, North Carolina and is the son of Alexander Pickard and Jane (Morrow) Pickard. The 1838 guardianship papers of George M. Pickard's children and the 1851 estate distribution records of Henry M. Bryan indicate that George and Margaret Pickard were the parents of three children:

- . . . Alexander Ewing Pickard, b. March 2, 1835, Tennessee
- . . . Joseph Henderson Pickard, b. May 4, 1835, Tennessee
- . . . Mary Jane Pickard, b. 1836, Tennessee

George M. Pickard died prior to April 23, 1836 in Williamson County, Tennessee (when probate records were recorded for George M. Pickard). On September 6, 1838, Margaret "Pickard" married Joseph "Aultom" in Greene County, Illinois. Joseph was born in 1819 in Tennessee. Joseph Altum was previously married to Mary Lee on March 17, 1836 in Greene County, Illinois. On November 28, 1838 (the following month after Margaret again), Joseph Orton was made the guardian of all four children of George M. Pickard, one daughter by his sister-in-law, Nancy (Bryan) Pickard, and three children by his daughter, Margaret (Orton) Pickard. Joseph and Margaret Altum were the parents of at least seven children:

SAMUEL BRYAN (3) Samuel Bryan is the son of Samuel Bryan (2) and Margaret (Morrow) Bryan. One of the most convincing facts that link Samuel Bryan (3) to Davidson County, Tennessee is the marriage record showing that Samuel Bryan (3) married Charlotte "Charlton" in Davidson County, Tennessee. According to a 1956 letter from Martha (Mobley) McGill, Samuel Bryan "was born about 1800 in North Carolina." The 1880 census of Hill County, Texas shows that Finus Bryan's father, Samuel Bryan, was born in Ireland. The 1880 census of Maury County, Tennessee shows that William DeMoss Bryan's father, Samuel Bryan, was born in Tennessee. Several family historians believe that Samuel Bryan married Charlotte Greer Charter. According to "Marriages of Davidson County, Tennessee," Samuel Bryan married Charlotte "Charlton" on September 20, 1824 in Davidson County, Tennessee. Charlotte's middle name is either Greer or Greyer and Charlotte's last name is either Charter or Charlton. For additional information on Charlotte's name and her relatives, see the sketch of Charlotte Greer Charter (31). The 1850 census states that Charlotte was born in 1800 in Virginia and the 1860 census states that Charlotte was born in 1802 in Virginia. The 1880 census of Hill County, Texas shows that Finus Bryan's mother, Charlotte (Charter) Bryan, was born in Virginia.

Samuel Bryan's (3) marriage was documented in Davidson County, Tennessee in 1824. On September 19, 1839, deeds were recorded of land being sold by both Samuel Bryan (3) and James Bryan (2.3) to Martin Forehand in Davidson County, Tennessee. On April 20, 1838, Samuel Bryan sold fifty acres of land to Martin Forehand for $650.00, obviously a very prime piece of property at that price. This land was situated in District Fourteen and was bounded by land owned by Zachariah Allen and Newton Edney. This the same fifty acres that Samuel Bryan (2) purchased from John Burnham in 1808. The will of Samuel Bryan (2) states that gave to his "son Samuel Bryan fifty acres of land that I bought from John Burnham." It is believed that Samuel Bryan left for Maury County, Tennessee shortly after he sold this land to Martin Forehand. Samuel and Charlotte Bryan were the parents of at least seven children:

- . . . Robert Edmond Bryan, b. 1825, Davidson County, Tennessee
- . . . Sarah J. Bryan (3.2), b. November 21, 1826, Davidson County, Tennessee
- . . . Nancy Maria Bryan (3.3), b. January 7, 1827, Davidson County, Tennessee
- . . . Thomas Samuel Bryan (3.4), b. 1831, Davidson County, Tennessee
- . . . James R. Bryan, b. 1835, Davidson County, Tennessee
- . . . William DeMoss Bryan (3.6), b. March 22, 1838, Davidson County, Tennessee
- . . . Finus Ewing Bryan (4), b. June 1, 1840, Maury County, Tennessee

In 1830, there is a Samuel "Bryant" listed in census of Davidson County, Tennessee. However, the children of this Samuel Bryant are different from the known children: two males (born 1825 to 1830) and one female (born 1820 to 1825). In 1840, Samuel "Bryant" and his family were living in Maury County, Tennessee. In 1840, 1841 and 1843, Samuel "Bryant" was listed in the Maury County, Tennessee tax lists. In 1843, Samuel was shown owning 192 acres of land valued at $1,500 and two slaves valued at $800. Samuel Bryan wrote his will on March 30, 1847 in Maury County, Tennessee and Charlotte (Charter) Bryan was living alone in the 1850 census of Maury County, Tennessee, therefore, Samuel Bryan died between 1847 and 1850 in Maury County, Tennessee. According to a 1947 letter from Cornelia (Moore) Redfield, Samuel Bryan "was buried at the Alexander Cemetery which is southeast of his old plantation near Williamsport."

From 1850 to 1860, Charlotte (Charter) Bryan was living in Maury County, Tennessee. In 1860, M. E. Bryan (male, born 1842) was living with Charlotte (Charter) Bryan. According to a family group sheet by Martha (Mobley) McGill, Charlotte (Charter) Bryan died in 1864 in Maury County, Tennessee. According to a 1947 letter from Cornelia (Moore) Redfield, "Charlotte died shortly after the War between the States ended and was buried in the family cemetery on their place near Williamsport."

Most family historians do not show Robert Bryan as a son of Samuel and Charlotte Bryan. JAMES REVIER (21) is the probably the father of the author's oldest proven Revier ancestor of the authors, William Jackson Revier. James was born on February 22, 1778 in Lancaster County, Virginia. On January 3, 1806, James Revier married Nancy Ann Alderson in Richmond County, Virginia. Nancy was born on January 21, 1790 in Richmond County, Virginia and is the daughter of John Alderson and Rachel Alderson. James Revier is highly likely to be the son of James Revier, Sr. and Winifred (Thomas) Revier. James "Riveer" wrote his will on November 30, 1815 and this will began probate by December 16, 1816 in Lancaster County, Virginia. This will mentions, son, James Riveer, son Joel Riveer, son Cyrus Riveer, daughter, Polly Riveer and two children of deceased son, William Riveer. It is very fortunate that this will supported and enhanced by a family Bible that states: James "Riveer" was married on November 14, 1771 and lists the following children: Milly Riveer, b. December 26, 1772; Abner Riveer, b. August 28, 1775; James Riveer, b. February 22, 1778; Joel Riveer, b. June 30, 1780; William Riveer, b. April 5, 1783; Cyrus Riveer, b. September 19, 1785; Polly Riveer, b. October 1, 1788. Marriage Records of Northumberland County, Virginia show that James "Reveer" married Winifred Thomas on November 12, 1771.

James and Nancy Revere as well as Nancy's parents moved from Richmond County, Virginia to Maury County, Tennessee. Numerous legal documents connect James and Nancy Revere to John Alderson and his first wife, Rachel, and his second wife, Elizabeth Alderson. In February, 1825, an excellent genealogical document (power of attorney) provides proof that James Revier and Nancy Alderson are connected to Nancy's deceased father, John Alderson. This Lancaster County, Virginia power of attorney establishes that James and Nancy Revier remained in Lancaster County, Virginia as late as 1825. In December, 1827, Nancy Revier is found in Chauncery Court Records of Maury County, Tennessee. These court records involve land in Virginia and provide excellent information concerning Nancy's siblings, step-siblings, step-mother and even an uncle. Although these records do not indicate the residence of Nancy Revier, it is most likely that she was then living in Maury County, Tennessee. This record indicates that Nancy was a daughter of John Alderson and his first wife, Rachel. The estate of John Alderson was still being settled as late as 1836 when Gerard Greenfield sued the descendants of John Alderson concerning land that John Alderson had once owned. This document again provides excellent documentation of Nancy Revier to her siblings, step-siblings and step-mother. These records mention James Revier and Nancy Revier, his wife, and it can be assumed that they were residing in Maury County, Tennessee where the court case was held and where the land in dispute was located.

Unfortunately, no records have been located to establish the children of James and Nancy Revere. There are very few Revier family members that ever lived Maury County, Tennessee and Maury County, Tennessee is the only county in Tennessee where any Revier family members lived prior to the Civil War. Other than James and Nancy Revier, only six Revier family members have been discovered living in Maury County, Tennessee prior to the Civil War. Because of their estimated dates of birth, places of birth (Virginia) and place of residence (Maury County, Tennessee), there is a very high probability that all of these other early Revier families living in early Maury County, Tennessee are children of James and Nancy Revier. James and Nancy Revier is believed to be the parents of at least six children:

- . . . Alice Revier, b. 1808, Virginia
- . . . Mary Anna Revier (21.2), b. 1811, Virginia
- . . . William Jackson Revier (22), b. April 2, 1818, Virginia
- . . . John Alderson Revier (21.4), b. June, 1823, Virginia
- . . . Jane Nancy Revier, b. 1824, Virginia
- . . . Son (died in June, 1835)

It is believed that James Revier and Nancy (Alderson) Revier died in Maury County, Tennessee sometime after 1836 (mentioned in estate records of John Alderson). On December 6, 1826, Alice Revier married Samuel Ticer in Lancaster County, Virginia. Alice (Revier) Ticer died in August, 1835 in Williamsport, Tennessee. On July 26, 1838, Jane Revier married Thomas McAdams in Williamsport, Tennessee. During a cholera epidemic in June of 1835, listed was "a young Mr. Revier."

JAMES RIVEER, SR. (28) is probably the father of James Revier of Maury County, Tennessee. James was born around 1751 (since James married in 1771). James "Riveer" wrote his will on November 30, 1815 and this will began probate by December 16, 1816 in Lancaster County, Virginia. This will mentions the following children:

- . . . James Riveer (son)
- . . . Joel Riveer (son)
- . . . Cyrus Riveer (son)
- . . . Polly Riveer (daughter)
- . . . William Riveer (deceased son with two children)

It is very fortunate that the will of James Revier is supported and enhanced by a family Bible. This family Bible indicates that James "Riveer" was married on November 14, 1771 and lists the following children:

- . . . Milly Riveer, b. December 26, 1772
- . . . Abner Riveer, b. August 28, 1775
- . . . James Riveer (21), b. February 22, 1778
- . . . Joel Riveer, b. June 30, 1780
- . . . William Riveer, b. April 5, 1783
- . . . Cyrus Riveer (28.6), b. September 19, 1785
- . . . Polly Riveer, b. October 1, 1788

The Bible record has two additional children who probably died without issue prior to 1815 when James Revier, Sr. wrote his will. According to Donna Randolph, Milly Revier died on May 3, 1795 which supports this assumption. Marriage records of Northumberland County, Virginia show that James "Reveer" married Winifred Thomas on November 12, 1771. This date matches very well the marriage date found in the family Bible and establishes the wife of James Revier, Sr.

- . . . Julia Ann Riveer (28.6.1) (born ca. 1824 - married in 1842)
- . . . Abner Revere (28.6.2) (born 1830, Virginia)

JULIA ANN RIVEER (28.6.1) is the daughter of Cyrus Riveer. Julia was born around 1824 (she married in 1842). Probate records of Cyrus Riveer indicate that "Juliet Riveer" married William Walton Headley. According to the Headley family Bible, "Julia Ann Riveer" married William Walter Headley on August 24, 1842. It further states that William was born on February 14, 1826. This Bible further indicates that William and Julia Headley were the parents of x children:

- . . . Mary Ella Headley, b. July 2, 1843
- . . . Isabella Headley, b. March 25, 1845
- . . . Julia Ann Headley, b. March 27, 1848

PETER THOMAS (29) is probably the father of Winefred Thomas who married James Revere (28). Volume 27, Page 45 of "The Bulletin of the Northumberland County Historical Society" has excellent information on this line. It states that Peter Thomas married Anne Cornish, daughter of John Cornish. Peter and Anne Thomas were the parents of at least one son:

- . . . Rodham Thomas

It further states that Winefred Thomas was the step-brother of Rodham Thomas. It further states that Winefred Thomas married James "Revere" and that Rodham Thomas "was apprenticed to James Revere." Therefore, Peter Thomas was the father of another child (a daughter) whose mother was not Anne Thomas (stated to be a half-brother):

- . . . Winefred Thomas (born ca. 1751 - based on marriage date)

It further states that the estate of John Cornish listed Rodham Thomas and Elizabeth Thomas as orphans of Peter Thomas. Because both are legal heirs of John Cornish (father of Anne Cornish), it can be concluded that Peter Thomas and Anne Cornish were the parents of at least two children:

- . . . Rodham Thomas
- . . . Elizabeth Thomas

Since James Revere and Winefred Thomas were married in 1771 suggests that James Revere and Winefred Thomas were born around 1751 (assuming they married at age twenty). It is almost certain that "Wine" Thomas (born 1753) is the daughter of Peter Thomas that married James Revere. The year of birth (1753) provides a very good match when compared to the marriage date of James Revere and Winefred Thomas (1771). "Virginia Colonial Abstracts, Volume 3," provide birthdates for children of Peter Thomas. The birth record under "Church Record of Births (with a few deaths) Northumberland County.

Limiting dates 1661 - 1810," establish that various men named Peter Thomas were the father of: three daughters:

- . . . Sarah Ann Thomas (daughter - born February 25, 1729)
- . . . Winef'd Thomas (daughter - born May 17, 1732)
- . . . Wine Thomas (daughter - born February 15, 1753)

"Records of Northumberland County, Virginia - abstracts" indicate that Peter Thomas could be the son of John Thomas who left a will that was written on August 15, 1710 and proved on February 18, 1712/1713. This will indicates that the wife of John Thomas was Elizabeth Thomas. This will had witnesses listed as:Dennis Conway, James Loughman, Bryant Smith and John Rankin. This will also states that "daughter Elizabeth to have my orphan girl, Anne Fitzgerald." This will indicates that John Thomas and his wife, Elizabeth Thomas, were the parents of six children:

- . . . Richard Thomas (son)
- . . . William Thomas (son)
- . . . Peter Thomas (son)
- . . . John Thomas (son)
- . . . Elizabeth Thomas (daughter - under age)
- . . . Jane Thomas (daughter - under age)

REVERE'S OF MIDDLESEX COUNTY, VIRGINIA

William J. Revere (22) is the oldest known Revere ancestor of the authors. William Revere had a daughter, Caledonia Ann Revere, who is the author's youngest direct ancestor born with the surname of Revere. Caledonia Ann Revere married Finus Ewing Bryan (4), both direct ancestors of the authors. It is known that William was born in 1818 in Virginia. From 1840 to 1870, William and his wife, Mary Revere, were living in Maury County, Tennessee. From 1860 and 1870, there was a J. A. "Revier" also living in Maury County, Tennessee. It is very probable that J. A. Revere is William Revere's brother. It is also known that J. A. Revere was born in 1822 in Virginia. Because both Revere's were born in Virginia, it was decided to research early Revere families in Virginia.

From 1850 to 1860, over half of the Revere families in Virginia lived in Middlesex County, Virginia with others living in Spotsylvania County, King and Queen County, Lancaster County and Richmond County, Virginia. All of these counties are nearby to Middlesex County, Virginia. Obviously, researching these Revere families might uncover information on William and J. A. Revere's ancestry. The vast majority of Revere individuals that remained in Virginia are descendants of Peter and Hannah Revere:

. . . Peter Revere (20.1)

According to the "Revere Family" manuscript located in the Mary Ball Memorial Library, Peter Revere (20.1) is the son of John Revere and Joanna Revere. This line, John and Joanna Revere, is documented only by the manuscript but obviously could be related to the author's William Jackson Revere:

. . . John Revere (20.2)

Joanna Revere married a Mr. Walker. Frances Revere married Captain Taylor. Hannah Revere married a Mr. Walker. Wyatt Revere left Virginia when he was a young man.

- . . . James B. Revere (20.1.2.3), b. 1809
- . . . Nancy Revere, b. 1815
- . . . Isaac Newton Revere (20.1.2.5), b. January 30, 1816, Virginia
- . . . Sarah Frances Revere (20.1.2.6), b. 1817, Virginia

In 1850, Sarah (Barrick) Revere was still living in Middlesex County, Virginia. Robert Revere went to Baltimore, Maryland when a young man. Nancy Revere married Reverend Holland Walker.

CHARLOTTE GREER CHARTER (31) is the oldest known Charter ancestor of the authors. Charlotte was born in 1800 in Virginia. Charlotte Charter married Samuel Bryan, both direct ancestors of the authors. For additional information on the descendants of Samuel and Charlotte Bryan, see the sketch of Samuel Bryan (3). There are conflicting accounts of Charlotte's middle and last name. A 1948 letter from Robert E. Bryant states that "Samuel Bryant married Charlotte Greyer Charter." According to "Marriages of Davidson County, Tennessee," Samuel Bryan married Charlotte Charlton. A 1947 letter from Cornelia (Moore) Redfield states that "Samuel married Charlotte G. Charter." The book, "Century Review of Maury County, Tennessee," shows that William DeMoss Bryan's mother was Charlotte G. (Charter) Bryan. Several family group sheets by Martha (Mobley) McGill show that Samuel Bryan married Charlotte Greer Charter.

MORROW FAMILY HISTORY

This author has become convinced that William Morrow and Jane (Parks) Morrow are the parents Margaret Morrow, wife of Samuel Bryan (2), all four individuals being direct ancestors of this author. It is further believed that Margaret Morrow was previously married to a Mr. Steel prior to her marriage to Samuel Bryan in 1784. There are two major legal documents that support this connection (the will of William Morrow and the marriage bond of Margaret Steel to Samuel Bryan). Further supporting this connection are the names of immediate family members of Samuel and Margaret Bryan. The places of residence for descendants of these two lines (Bryan and Morrow) also support this connection. The will of William Morrow was written in Orange County, North Carolina in 1807 and clearly states that William Morrow had a daughter, Margaret "Bryen". The will of William Morrow mentions: sons - William Morrow (received land), James Morrow (received land) and John Morrow (John received no property but the will mentions John's daughter and John's wife as enhiriting one slave); daughters - Elizabeth Andrews, Margaret Bryen, Jane Pickhard (all received money from the estate). This will also mentions Janey Parkes Morrow whose relationship is not extremely clear (it appears that Janey is probably the granddaughter of William Morrow and the daughter of John Morrow and his wife, Jane Saray Morrow); executors were sons William Morrow and James Morrow and John Thompson (a neighbor and probably the future father-in-law of Jane Morrow, granddaughter of William and Jane Morrow); witnesses were - Robert Graham, William Graham and John Thompson. The marriage bond for the marriage of Samuel Bryan and Margaret Steel on August 11, 1784 in Orange County, North Carolina clearly establishes that a Samuel Bryan married a woman named Margaret. This marriage bond was paid by John Morrow (very likely the brother of Margaret Morrow) and Samuel Bryan (future husband of Margaret). John Morrow's economic obligation for the marriage of Samuel and Margaret Bryan further supports the case for Margaret being Margaret Morrow. The family names given to children of Samuel Bryan and Margaret (Morrow) further strengthen this connection. Two older sons of Samuel Bryan and Margaret (Morrow) Bryan were: Henry "Morrow" Bryan and William "Park" Bryan. Margaret's father was a Morrow and the maiden name of Margaret's mother was Parks.

There is a John Morrow that resided approximately five miles south of the land owned by Samuel Bryan and Samuel Bryan's father, John Bryan, in Rowan County, North Carolina. This John Morrow resided in Rowan County, North Carolina during the same timeframe that Samuel Bryan lived there. It is not certain how this John Morrow is related Margaret Morrow - but this is certainly the Morrow relative that introduced Margaret Morrow to her future husband, Samuel Bryan (they lived five miles from each other). Many other descendants of William Morrow and Jane (Parks) Morrow (as well as many other Morrow lines) migrated with the descendants of siblings of Margaret (Morrow) Bryan, descendants of siblings of her husband, Samuel Bryan and descendants of Samuel Bryan and Margaret (Morrow) Bryan. John Morrow signed his will in Rowan County, North Carolina on September 14, 1815 and mentions: oldest sons, William Morrow and John Morrow; son Allin Morrow; son Thomas Morrow receives land adjacent to James Orton (neighbor of John Bryan) and William Butler, son Arthur Morrow to “have still and vessels,” Joseph Morrow to have 280 acres of land; daughter Jane Morrow, wife of James Davis, Sr.; daughter Elizabeth Morrow, wife of James Davis, Jr.; daughter Nancy Morrow; daughter Rebecca Morrow. Witnessed by Samuel Little (neighbor of John Bryan) and Thomas Morrow. Also, Joseph Morrow (son of John Morrow) signed his will in Rowan County, North Carolina on April 5, 1816 and mentions: mother, Elizabeth Morrow; sister Nancy Morrow; brother Allen Morrow; brothers Thomas Morrow and Arthur Morrow; brother William Morrow; sister Jane (Morrow) Davis; sister Elizabeth (Morrow) Davis; sister Rebecca Morrow. Executors were Thomas Morrow and Arthur Morrow and witnesses were Benjamin Bean and Nancy Renshaw (neighbor of John Bryan). This verifies and enhances information concerning the family of John Morrow established in his 1815 will.

In 1790, John Morrow received a land grant on the north bank of the South Yadkin River in Rowan County, North Carolina (now the southwest corner of present day Davie County, North Carolina - about five miles south of John Bryan's land grant and Samuel Bryan's land purchase). Nearby neighbors included: Joseph Orton, John Beeman, Patrick Hughey, Thomas Bean, Andrew Tygert and John Vanclieve. John Morrow appears in the 1800 and 1810 censuses of Rowan County, North Carolina. Originally it was thought that this John Morrow would be the son of William Morrow and Jane (Parks) Morrow, but closer examination of the actual loose will of William Morrow implies that this John died prior to 1807 and that his wife was Jane Saray and John had one daughter - Janey Parkes Morrow. John Morrow (of Rowan County, North Carolina) died around 1815 and Joseph Morrow (son of John Morrow) listed his mother as Elizabeth. Unfortunately, John Morrow, son of William Morrow and Jane (Parks) Morrow, died prior to 1807, therefore, John could not write a will in 1815. Also, John Morrow, son of William Morrow and Jane (Parks) Morrow, appears to have married Jane Saray which is not consistent with the will of Joseph Morrow (son of John Morrow of Rowan County, North Carolina) that states that his mother was named Elizabeth. Further research needs to be done to clarify the relationship of this key person (John Morrow of Rowan County, North Carolina) to the author's ancestor, Margaret (Morrow) Bryan.

It is also known that the Morrow and Bryan families sought new land together in major migrations from Rowan County, North Carolina to Davidson County, Tennessee, Maury County, Tennessee and Greene County, Illinois. While in Greene County, Illinois, at least six Morrow individuals married into the author's Bryan / Allen line (their relationship to the author's Morrow line has not established to date). There are also known intermarriages between these Bryan and Morrow lines: - Jane Morrow (daughter of William and Jane Morrow) married Alexander Pickard. Alexander and Jane Pickard had a son, George M. Pickard, who married Nancy Bryan (2.12), daughter of Samuel Bryan and Margaret (Morrow) Bryan and later married a second time to Margaret Ortan (2.10.2), a granddaughter of Samuel Bryan and Margaret (Morrow) Bryan. It is known that some of the Morrow families of Greene County, Illinois originated from Rowan County, North Carolina. In 1835, Jane (Morrow) Davis, daughter of John and Elizabeth Morrow, moved from Rowan County, North Carolina to Greene County, Illinois with her husband James Davis. On June 29, 1822, the son of John and Elizabeth Morrow, John Morrow, of "Greene" County, Illinois sold 150 acres of land granted to his father, John Morrow, in Rowan County, North Carolina on November 16, 1790. Also, George M. Pickard and Nancy Bryan married in Davidson County, Tennessee and later resided in Greene County, Illinois. Elizabeth Morrow, sister of Margaret Morrow who married Samuel Bryan (2), married James Andrew and moved to Davidson County, Tennessee around 1800. It is believed that there numerous other relationships between these two family lines (Bryan and Morrow) that have not yet been discovered in this early stage of this author's research of his Morrow line.

WILLIAM MORROW (51)

According to the tombstones of William Morrow and Jane (Parks) Morrow, William Morrow was born in 1734 and his wife, Jane Parks Morrow was born in 1731. The tombstone indicates that they were born in Ireland (this is a conflict with most other accounts of their origin). The 1807 will of William Morrow establishes that William Morrow was the father of six children and other information:

- . . . William Morrow, Jr. (enherited land)
- . . . James Morrow (enherited land)
- . . . Elizabeth (Morrow) Andrews (received cash)
- . . . Margaret (Morrow) Bryen (received cash)
- . . . Jane (Morrow) Pickhard (received cash)
- . . . John Morrow (father of Janey Parkes Morrow)
- . . . Janey Parkes Morrow (daughter of John Morrow)
- . . . Jane Saray Morrow (mother of Janey Parkes Morrow)

This will also implies that Janey Parkes Morrow was the daughter of John Morrow and his wife, Jane Saray Morrow (will is not extremely clear or legible for this connection). Janey Parkes Morrow was to receive one slave and in case of her death, her mother Jane Saray Morrow, was to receive the slave from the estate. This will also implies that John Morrow died prior to this will be written in 1807 (since he received no enheritance and both his wife and daughter received property directly from William Morrow's estate). According to the Ancestral File, the family of William Morrow is as follows: - William Morrow was born in 1739 and was from Lunenburg County, Virginia. William is the son of Daniel Morrow (born 1705) and Diana Morrow (born 1709). William Morrow married Jane Parks. Jane was born around 1739 and was from Prince Edward County, Virginia. William Morrow and Jane (Parks) Morrow were the parents of five children:

- . . . William Morrow, Jr., b. April 15, 1767, Orange County, North Carolina
- . . . James Morrow, b. 1767, Fayetteville, North Carolina
- . . . John Morrow, b. 1756, Fayetteville, North Carolina
- . . . Elizabeth Morrow, b. January 27, 1752, Fayetteville, North Carolina
- . . . Jane Morrow, b. 1754, Fayetteville, North Carolina

The Ancestral File and World Connect Project include siblings of William Morrow (born 1739) as well as additional ancestors of William Morrow (born 1739). Research of these siblings and ancestors is currently considered beyond the scope of this publication (until the connection between Margaret Morrow and Samuel Bryan can be better verified and the family of William Morrow and Jane (Parks) Morrow can be more thoroughly verified. Obviously, there are conflicting dates in the above accounts and two children that are missing from the will of William Morrow. There are three birthdates in the 1750's yet William Morrow and Jane Parks were supposedly both born in 1739. This would require that William and Jane Morrow to have children at age thirteen, fifteen and seventeen - a red flag from a genealogical point of view. A better estimate would be that William Morrow and Jane Parks were born a few years earlier or that their first few children were born a few years later. According to Randy Tanner, William and Jane Morrow's daughter, Jane Morrow, was married in 1792 and that Jane Morrow was born in 1774. This suggests that Jane Morrow was eighteen years of age when she married Alexander Pickard (not twenty years earlier in 1754). The birthdates of the children of William and Jane Morrow's daughter, Elizabeth Morrow, also appear to be inconsistent. The Ancestral File states that her first two children, Nancy Andrew and William Andrew, were born in 1772 and 1774 respectively. The next two children were born in 1784 and 1786, five children born in the 1790s and two were born after 1800. The last child, Elizabeth Andrew, was born in 1802 when Elizabeth would have been fifty years of age - a red flag from a genealogical point of view. Again, the birthdate of Elizabeth Morrow appears to earlier than it should be (even though there is an exact birthdate which suggests a family Bible or tombstone inscription). John Morrow had one younger son, Arthur Morrow, that was born in 1789. John would been forty-three years of age - believable but still at a more advanced age that most men were still fathering children. However, the 1800 census record of John Morrow in Rowan County, North Carolina support earlier birthdates (the 1800 census indicates that John Morrow was born prior to 1755). Based on the above information, it is believed that the first three children of William and Jane Morrow were born much later than shown in the Ancestral File and that the exact birthdate of Elizabeth Morrow is very questionable. Based on this information, it is believed that William and Jane Morrow were the parents of seven children (order of children and birthdates are subject to change with additional research):

- . . . Elizabeth Morrow (51.1), b. ca. 1759, North Carolina
- . . . Margaret Morrow (52), b. ca. 1760, North Carolina
- . . . John Morrow (51.3), b. North Carolina
- . . . William Morrow, Jr. (51.4), b. April 15, 1767, North Carolina
- . . . James Morrow (51.5), b. ca. 1769, North Carolina

- . . . Janey Morrow, b. ca. 1771, North Carolina
- . . . Jane Morrow (51.6), b. ca. 1774, North Carolina

According to their tombstones, Jane (Parks) Morrow died on November 31, 1794 in Orange County, North Carolina and William Morrow died on November 13, 1807 in Orange County, North Carolina. According to the Ancestral File, both were buried in the Morrow Cemetery in Orange County, North Carolina. Margaret Morrow first married a Mr. Steel prior to 1784. In 1784, Margaret (Morrow) Steel married a second time to Samuel Bryan in Orange County, North Carolina, both are direct ancestors of this author. For additional information on several thousand descendants of Samuel and Margaret Bryan, see the sketch of Samuel Bryan (2).

HISTORY OF BRYAN FAMILY HISTORY

1976 to 1978

CLARA (BALDWIN) BRYAN - My mother contacted Clara in 1976 and has had an ongoing correspondence. Clara sent a history of her line, John Whitfield Bryan, and also a history of Odia (Bryan) Ferguson. Clara was one of our earliest contacts and provided much information on other Bryan lines which allowed to us to research and discover much more on several lines.

ALMA (HORNSBY) BRYAN - Alma contacted my aunt Birch in 1976 and my mother also started writing her that year also. Alma sent a very complete and extensive history of her line, William Samuel Bryan. She also contributed on Samuel and Charlotte Bryan, the Revere's and other Bryan lines.

BERTA (JACKSON) TURNER - My mother first contacted Berta in 1976 and Berta provided more information on her line, Odia (Bryan) Ferguson. In 1983, Berta wrote and gave us another Ferguson contact, Eleanor (Harwell) Roberson.

BEULAH (MCWHORTER) DYER - My mother wrote Beulah in 1976 and Beulah sent the history of Ella (Bryan) Dyer line which was compiled by her husband.

CENSUS RECORDS, COUNTY HISTORIES AND OTHER RESEARCH SOURCES - The authors located several census records of the descendants of Samuel and Charlotte Bryan which added to the lines where no contact with descendants had been made. Library research at the State Archives in Austin, Texas and the State Historical Commission in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma helped further expand the manuscript.

1979 to 1982

CASEY FAMILY HISTORY AND BROOKS FAMILY HISTORY - The Bryan line is my maternal grandmother's line. By 1979, my father's line (Casey) and my mother's line (Brooks) were being greatly expanded. A decision was made to discontinue research on the Bryan line as well as other lines until these projects were completed. The 200 page book, "Casey Family History" was published in 1980 and the 400 page "Brooks Family History" was published in 1982.

BETTYE (MOBLEY) PATTON - Bettye put her pedigree chart in the 1976 "Bicentennial Project of the Home Demonstration Club of Maury County, Tennessee." My mother located a copy of her pedigree chart and I wrote her in April of 1983. Bettye was our first contact with a Bryan researcher other than descendants of Finus Ewing Bryan, my great grandfather. Several letters, phone calls and a visit let us not only greatly expand the section on the descendants of Ella (Bryan) Mobley, but also added much on several other Bryan lines. Bettye also was the first to locate the 1832 will of Samuel Bryan in Davidson County, Tennessee, the establishing of another generation of our Bryan ancestry. Bettye also helped expand the William DeMoss Bryan descendants by his second marriage. Bettye provided the name and address of Pauline Armstrong, Mattie (Mobley) McGill's daughter, who generously shared much of her mother's files with us. Bettye was also responsible for our contact with Mary (Bryant) Davis. Bettye is probably the most active researcher of the descendants of Samuel and Charlotte Bryan and her significant contributions to the effort are greatly appreciated.

PAULINE (MCGILL) ARMSTRONG AND MARTHA (MOBLEY) MCGILL - I first contacted Pauline by phone and sent her a copy of the manuscript in November of 1983. In January of 1984, Pauline sent me a very large shipment of Bryan files of her mother, Martha (Mobley) McGill. Mattie was probably the most active Bryan researcher prior to the compilation of this manuscript. She had actively corresponded with many descendants of Samuel and Charlotte Bryan in the 1940's and 1950's and wrote my grandmother, Julia (Bryan) Brooks, several times. Much of her research was key in expanding numerous lines and providing information from which more research uncovered many new Bryan lines. Mattie and her daughter, Pauline, should receive special recognition for their help in documenting our Bryan history.

BRYANT STRASBURG - I first contacted Bryant by in phone and sent him a copy of the manuscript in October of 1983. In the early part of 1984, Bryant sent me a very large shipment of files on the descendants of William DeMoss Bryan's first marriage. Bryant's material sent was very extensive, including numerous biographies, photographs, compiled family group sheets and other material. His contribution resulted in almost 50 pages being added to the manuscript.

PROSISE COUSINS - After calling several Prosise's at random who lived in the Eden, Texas area, I made contact with Mrs. John Whitfield Prosise. My mother vigorously pursued documenting the numerous descendants of Charlotte (Bryan) Prosise. She contacted over a dozen cousins and obtained information that has expanded the Prosise section to almost 50 pages. Some cousins are: Ella (Helmers) Prosise, Lillian (Burk) Tomlinson, Imogene (Burk) Pfluger, Lori (Prosise) Jurischk, Thelma (Massey) Ellis, Joan Prosise, Lizzie (Lloyd) Nielson, Vina Lee (Lloyd) Wilson, Earl Lloyd, Harold and Helen Lloyd, Wilma (Lloyd) Logan, Lizzie Belle (Lloyd) Johnson, Nora (Lloyd) Stinson, Emma (Hogan) Prosise, Clara Mae (Prosise) Erwin and Clydia (Johnson) Prosise.

MARY (BRYANT) DAVIS - Mary first wrote me in May of 1984, getting my name from Bettye (Mobley) Patton. A visit with Mary and her family in August of 1985, resulted in more information on the descendants of William DeMoss Bryan's second marriage. She also lead us to a new contact, Mildred (Johnston) Bratton, a descendant of Nancy (Bryan) Church.

KATHRYN (HARWELL) ROBERSON - I wrote Kathryn in January, 1984 after obtaining her name and address from Berta (Jackson) Turner. Kathryn responded in February of 1984 sending Bible records and other information of her line, Odia (Bryan) Ferguson.

PATRICIA (FERGUSON) WILLIAMS - Pat first wrote me in May of 1984, getting my name from Kathryn (Harwell) Roberson. She sent many family group sheets and added to the line of Odia (Bryan) Ferguson.

CENSUS RECORDS - Dozens of census records of numerous Bryan family members added many more names to the manuscript. The Dallas Public Library and the regional office of the National Archives in Fort Worth continue to expand the scope of the book.

MCCUBBINS COLLECTION MICROFILM - The best find of our July, 1985 research trip was found in the Huntsville, Alabama Public Library which had a microfilm copy of the McCubbins research files on Rowan County, North Carolina. My mother found the 1801 deed where Samuel Bryan of Davidson County, Tennessee sold land in Rowan County, North Carolina that he inherited from his father, John Bryan. This discovery uncovered yet another generation back on the author's Bryan line. In early 1986, I discovered that the McCubbins microfilm was in the Plano Public Library only a few miles away from my home and research on John and his family began in earnest. Our second research trip in April of 1986, took us through Salisbury in Rowan County and much of the McCubbins files were copied.

CHARLES STEPHENSON - While in the Hickman County court house in July of 1985, the very helpful clerk gave us the phone number of Charles Stephenson who became our first descendant of James Thomas Bryan located.

MR. and MRS. GEORGE S. TATE - While visiting the Pulaski Public Library in July of 1985, a researcher there gave us the name of George Tate living in Knoxville, Tennessee, our first descendant of Sarah (Bryan) Tate.

MILDRED (JOHNSTON) BRATTON - Mary (Bryant) Davis gave us Mildred's name while visiting her in July of 1985. Following a phone conversation with Mildred, I first wrote her in August of 1985. Mildred responded in September of 1985 adding many descendants of Nancy (Bryan) Church. Mildred was our first contact with Nancy (Bryan) Church descendant.

BETTYE (MOBLEY) PATTON - A visit in July of 1985 resulted in Bettye generously lending me several of her files. These files greatly expanded the Ella (Bryan) Mobley line to almost 20 pages as well as additional information on other lines.

DEEDS AND WILLS OF ROWAN COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA - While in Rowan County, North Carolina area in April of 1986, we copied hundreds of pages of deeds and wills from court houses. Additionally, we copied other Bryan research material found in the excellent Salisbury Public Library. This material has been most useful in documenting the family of John and Sarah Bryan, currently the oldest Bryan ancestor of the authors. John's connection to the line of Morgan and Martha Bryan is now trying to be established.

DAVIDSON COUNTY AND MAURY COUNTY, TENNESSEE RECORDS - Both research trips included visiting the Davidson and Maury County Courthouses as well as the Tennessee State Archives. The link between Maury County and Davidson County Bryan's was strengthened.

JOHN K. BRYAN, JR. MANUSCRIPT - While at the Salisbury Public Library in April of 1986, a copy of "Bryan History" by John K. Bryan, Jr. was located and a recent telephone conversation with John resulted in him sending his most recent copy of his manuscript which concentrates on Morgan and Martha Bryan and their children's families. John will no doubt contribute much more help on unravelling our John Bryan's connection to Morgan Bryan's line.

MARY ANNE (WHITFIELD) BEASLEY - After finding a copy of "Humphreys County, Tennessee" in the Tennessee State Archives in April of 1986, a sketch of John William Beasley was copied. This resulted in a phone call to John and he gave the number of his mother who is an active genealogist. John and his mother are descendants of Amanda (Bryan) Teas line, a second contact of a descendant of James Thomas Bryan.

RUTH (CORBETT) KUNKLE - My entry in the July/August, 1986 issue in the Genealogical Helper's Roots Cellar resulted in a letter from Ruth Kunkle in September of 1986. Ruth is a descendant of John Bryan's daughter, Jennet Bryan who married Joseph Orton and is the first descendant of John Bryan located other than those descending from John's son, Samuel Bryan, our direct ancestor.

PIERCE, PRUITT AND STANLEY COUSINS - My mother actively sought and received new information from new cousins descending from Belle (Bryan) Pierce, daughter of Finus and Caledonia Bryan. Letters were received from Paul Stanley as well as Dwight and Hazel Pierce.

CHARLOTTE (DODSON) PORTER - Charlotte contacted my mother and not only added much information on her line, William DeMoss Bryan's daughter, Odie (Bryan) Dodson, but added much on information on the Samuel Bryan's daughter, Sarah (Bryan) Tate. Charlotte grew up around the Tate's and remained in contact with her distant cousins.

1987 - 1988

UPDATES FROM COUSINS PREVIOUSLY CONTACTED - As a result of the Bryan Chain Letter that was started in late 1986, several cousins sent in updates. Updates were received from Clara (Baldwin) Bryan, Alma (Hornsby) Bryan, Mary (Bryant) Davis, Mildred (Johnston) Bratton, Bryant Stasburg, Bettye (Mobley) Patton and John K. Bryan, Jr.

MARGARET (RICE) WHITFIELD - Margaret received my name from her sister-in-law, Mary (Whitfield) Beasley and sent me much information on our Bryan line. Margaret is a descendant of Mary Louisa (Bryan) Smith and her husband is a descendant of her sister, Amanda (Bryan) Teas. Margaret added well over 100 descendants of these two lines.

ANCESTRAL FILE, LDS LIBRARY, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH - A side trip from a business trip to San Francisco provided me with my first visit to world's largest genealogical library. I kept very busy for several days and came back with several hundred sheets of research material for several lines. The best find on the Bryan line was located in the Ancestral File, a large genealogical data base accessed by a computer terminal. I discovered that our Bryan line has a second line that converted to the Mormon faith. John and Mary Bryan's daughter, Mary Bryan, married Thomas Huey. Thomas and Mary Huey had a daughter, Rebecca Huey, who married William Reed Orton. Many descendants of William and Rebecca Orton are members of the LDS church and at least six descendants have entered information into the Ancestral File. Several hundred descendants were extracted and correspondence should result in hundreds more being added to the manuscript.

SHELTON, WININGER AND PACE FAMILIES - Most of last two years was devoted to researching my paternal grandmother's lines and we received our third book from the printers in October of 1988. This 864 page book includes over 16,300 names in its index. With the publication my paternal (Casey) and maternal (Brooks) lines in the early 1980's allowed time to pursue the next generation back, my paternal grandmother (Shelton) and my maternal grandmother (Bryan). With the publication of my Shelton and related lines, research on the Bryan line will have highest priority of lines being researched.

IMPORTANT DESCENDANTS ADDED TO BRYAN LINE - On May 20, 1987, my wife, Diane (Thede) Casey, gave birth to our first son, named Jordan Brooks Casey and then number two, Bryan William Casey was born on May 26, 1989. Jordan was named after his great great great great grandfather, Jordan Brooks and Bryan was named after two uncles, Bryan Brooks and William Casey. Bryan Brooks was named from his mother's maiden name, Julia Ann Bryan, the first of my Bryan line. Jordan and Bryan are my parents only grandsons (after having five granddaughters from my two brothers). Needless to say, Jordan and Bryan impact the amount of research getting done, but more cousins keep contributing to the manuscript and time is being found to continue the compilation of our Bryan ancestry.

RENEE (WATERS) HARRIS - Renee was the first descendant of Mary (Bryan) Huey contacted via her entries into the Ancestral File. She added to valuable information on the Huey family and many additional descendants. It is certain that she will contribute more on the earlier, Bryan, Huey and Orton lines.

HUEY/ORTON RESEARCHERS - Was successful in contacting two additional researchers of this line, Thera (Johnson) Earl and Grant Orton Johnson, both living in Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada. Both are descendants of Mary (Bryan) Huey as is Renee (Waters) Harris.

CENSUS RECORDS - Many additional census records were located and compiled in the last two years which probably represents fifty percent of the time spent on Bryan research during this time frame. Actual census records for related Bryans doubled during this period and added a couple of hundred additional individuals to our history.

1989 - 1991

OTHER LINES - Most of the time during this period of time was devoted to other lines. The authors compiled several thousand Olliff cousins as well as added several thousand cousins to the author's Casey, Tucker, Arrington and Stevenson lines (all related to our Casey ancestry). On the personl side, my family relocated to Austin, Texas in October of 1989.

RACHEL (ORTON) CAMPBELL - In 1991, it was discovered that one of the granddaughters of John and Sarah Bryan, Rachel (Orton) Campbell, had been extensively researched and that a descendant from this line lived only a few miles from me in Austin, Texas. John T. Holman generously shared his Campbell files and gave me a copy of the 1974 manuscript on the Campbell line by Olive (Hotchkiss) Cartwright. John and two other Campbell researchers had also compiled a manuscript on their Campbell line: "Hiel Orton Campbell and His descendants" which was updated in March of 1991. Also several dozen census records substantiated and enhanced this line during this period of time.

MARGARET (BRYAN) ALLEN - In response to a query in the Rowan County Register, I contacted an Allen researcher who is a descendant of what appears to be the brother of Thomas Allen who married Margaret Bryan, daughter of John and Sarah Bryan. Robert G. Allen provided the seed that got this line started. With new found information from Robert G. Allen and the use of the local bulletin board system which carries the Fidonet genealogy conferences, I contacted another Allen cousin, Alice (Allen) Grogan who provided some information on her Allen line.

MALINDA (ORTON) HOUSE - While researching the Ancestral File in April of 1991, I discovered that part of the Orton line was included in the CDROM collection that LDS church has compiled. A dozen or so census records also expanded this line, however, no descendants have been located.

1992 - 1993

WILLIAM PARK BRYAN - In May of 1992, I was contacted by John Dorroh who made a major contribution to this Bryan compilation. John had discovered a 1909 letter by W. C. Bryan which discussed his grandparents family (Samuel and Margaret Bryan). W. C. had actually attended family reunions that Samuel and Margaret held for the Bryan clan and revealed that many of the children of Samuel Bryan, Sr. had been omitted from his will. John also shared numerous legal documents and abstracts that greatly strengthened this connection to several previously unknown children. He also submitted many descendants of his line, Olivia (Bryan) Roland and informed other cousins of the Bryan manuscript being compiled. In August of 1993, John sent several hundred descendants that had been sent to him by Candi Seaton and in November of 1993, Bessie (Goheen) Bradley sent many more descendants of Julia (Bryan) Goheen, a granddaughter of William Park Bryan. In December of 1993, Nadine (Bryan) Foley, sent many more descendants of Jonathan Tate Bryan, a grandson of William Park Bryan. The author then added another 30 more census records that validated this new information as well as expanding it.

BEXEY (ORTON) WILLIAMS - In May of 1993, a contact of many years sent in a major update on her Bryan line which included another 200 or more descendants. Additional census research help round out and enhance this section as well.

RACHEL (ORTON) CAMPBELL - Another 30 or 40 census records were added that resulted in another 100 or more descendants being added to the Bryan compilation.

MARGARET (BRYAN) ALLEN - The electronic bulletin board system provided yet another contact researching Allens in Greene County, Illinois. In July of 1993, Phyllis Baur added bits and pieces to the Allen puzzle and shared her information on her Greene County, Illinois cousins (cousins that we have in common - but she has no Bryan bloodline). Over 20 more census records greatly enhanced this section.

1994 - 1995

WILLIAM PARK BRYAN - This section was greatly expanded with major new contributions from Richard E. Bryan and Don Kirk. John Dorroh continued to add his lines as well and provide source documentation for early Tennessee Bryan family members.

CENSUS RECORDS - Many more census records were added on many different lines with at least 100 new Bryan cousins documented by only census records.

PINKERTON and ALLEN - A very concerted effort was made to add descendants to the several Bryan women that married Pinkerton men and several letters were written in an attempt to expand the line of Margaret (Bryan) Allen. Although very few cousins were added, significant information was uncovered.

BRYAN and PINKERTON - Before attending the National Genealogical Society's national meeting in Nashville, Tennessee, "cousin" John Dorroh and I spent several days going through nearby County courthouses and the Tennessee State Archives as well as visiting Pinkerton cousins who had living in the same house for several generations prior to the Civil War. Many additional records were located in the State Archives concerning our Davidson County, Tennessee Bryan family. A major breakthrough on the David Pinkerton line was best find on the Tennessee Bryan lines in several years.
